DR. ARNETT

MR. NOYES

Weekend Revival At Moorefield

Dr. William Arnett and Gary Noyes will be conducting a four-meeting weekend revival at the Moorefield Methodist Church this Friday, Saturday and Sunday of Feb. 25-27. The evening services will begin at 7:00 p.m., and the Sunday morning service will be at 11:00 a.m.

Dr. Arnett, a professor at Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore, has a background of rich experiences. He has earned two degrees, B.A. and B. D., at Asbury College and Asbury Seminary. He received his Th. M degree from Princeton Theological Seminary, and later earned his Ph. D degree at Drew Theological Seminary in Madison, N. J. In addition to this, he has made a number of contributions in the field of writing. His pastoral experience has taken him to the states of Kansas, Kentucky, New Jersey, and New York. He has twice travelled to the Orient to teach in the Seoul Theological Seminary, Seoul, Korea; and to preach in Japan, Formosa, Hong Kong and the Philipine Islands. Dr. Arnett spends much of his time preaching revival meetings in many churches.

Mr. Noyes, the song evangelist, is presently a senior student at Asbury Seminary. He has spent a number of years in song evangelism as song leader and soloist. This year he is a soloist for the Asbury Seminary Singers, a group of singing men that will travel through the southern states next month during spring vacation. He is preparing for the pastoral ministry.

These meetings will emphasize the true meanings of the Christian life and message, and are open to the public to attend.

cher, second by Wills, directed that a letter be sent informing Mr. Angelis, "that we do not expect to have him continue to represent the board, since he has been dismissed. Auxier, Rose and Smoot did not vote, Sims voted no, Letcher, Livingood and Wills voted yea.

Auxier raised a question, "Where is Mr. Fowler?"

Livingood: "We have come to a point as board members as where we think we need a degree in law to operate!"

Sims: "I move that as of March 1, we discontinue Mr. Fowler's services and that another lawyer impartial to either side be employed by this board."

Livingood: "Mr. Fowler has resigned."

Although Mr. Livingood did not read Mr. Fowler's letter at this time, the letter is as follows:

Feb. 14, 1966

"I hereby submit my resignation as attorney for the Board. I believe that the Board would be well advised to employ a competent attorney who has had no contact with the past law suits. Sincerely yours, Ben Fowler"

Public Law 874 was discussed, it dealing with children of parents working on certain government projects. A sum of between $7 and 8,000 is paid to the school and it was necessary that someone be appointed to sign the necessary papers and keep the records so that these monies might be paid the school. A motion by Rose, second by Letcher, appointed the secretary, Mr. Wesley, as the person responsible, carried. Voting no were Sims and Auxier.

Payroll policy was discussed and decision to pay on March 1 was made. Payments to Mrs. Ralph Taylor and Mrs. William Threikeld for additional education conducted in pre-Christmas night lessons carried unanimously on motion by Sims, second by Auxier.

Motion to pay bills by Sims, second by Wills, carried.

Items 13, 14 and 15 on the agenda dealing with the new building and the architect's sketches were authorized on motion by Rose, second by Letcher.

Mr. Livingood called board's attention to an unsafe situation existing at the Nicholas County Elementary School in which a classroom adjoins the lunchroom and its only entrance and exit is through the kitchen. Sims on recommendation of Mr. Fryman moved that another door be cut in the opposite wall, second by Mrs. Smoot. Motion carried unanimously.

Another motion by Sims, with second by Mrs. Smoot, carried unanimously, in the acceptance of Mr. Fowler's resignation.

A letter from Peggy Buckler resigning effective Feb. 6 was read. Resignation was accepted and payment for work was made according to board policy on motion by Smoot, second by Letcher.

On motion by Sims, second by Auxier, Mrs. Willa Mathis was hired to replace Mrs. Buckler. Mrs. Mathis to work in the afternoons until May 1. Salary set at $100 per month.

Mr. Fryman offered his resignation as of March 1, explaining his duties as director of pupil personnel, demanded his full time. Although Mr. Livingood and Mr. Sims expressed a desire that he reconsider, Mr. Fryman said, "No, I want you to think about it. I have already discussed it with Mr. Melton I think the State Department will give you all the help you need in finding someone whose services you can use."

The board then discussed the matter of securing the services of an unbiased attorney and decided to bring proposals to the next meeting.

standing Young Men of America is an annual biographical compilation of approximately 10,000 young men of outstanding rank throughout the country. Nominees for the book come from many sources.

"This book," states Henry Ford, II "serves as more than a tribute to those it is meant to honor. It calls attention to the great capabilities of our young men and their capacity for getting things done."

The next meeting of the local Jaycees will be Wednesday night, March 2. At this meeting the officers for the coming year will be elected and will take office at the annual Jaycee banquet in early April.

Feb. Grand Jury Report Released

Grand Jury Report of the Nicholas Circuit Court Feb. Term 1966.

The Grand Jury of the February Term 1966 of the Nicholas Circuit Court respectfully reports that it met in regular session on Feb. 7 and Feb. 21.

The Grand Jury took the following action: Commonwealth of Kentucky vs W. F. Adkins, Jack Jaggers, and Charles Pergram – The Commonwealth examined two witnesses and returned indictments against W. F. Adkins, Jack Jaggers, and Charles Pergram for breaking and entering a barn of Mrs. Pearl Reed.

Commonwealth of Kentucky vs. Gary Small – The Commonwealth examined one witness and returned an indictment against Gary Small for carnal knowledge of a female under seventeen years of age.

Commonwealth of Kentucky vs Roy Ratliff and Paul Barbee – The Commonwealth examined one witness and returned an indictment against Roy Ratliff and Paul Barbee for discharging a deadly weapon on a public highway.

The following recommendations were made:

The Grand Jury recommends that the Pisical Court inspect the wiring and also the floors at the jail. These things are in need of attention immediately.

The Grand Jury wants to thank Mrs. Dottie Young for the enlighting talk she gave them on the Welfare Program. They believe that this department is doing a fine job.

The Grand Jury recommends that the Judge's Office be renovated, and that all other offices in the Court House have a general housecleaning if needed.

The Grand Jury made no general inspection of all of the county properties, but interviewed various officials concerning them and no detailed inspection was felt advisable.

The Grand Jury is very favorably impressed with the manner in which the Circuit Judge conducts the Nicholas Circuit Court, and they especially wish to thank him for the very detailed instructions which he gave them. In the handling of their duties; and they wish to commend him for the dignity in which he operates his court. They also wish to thank the County Attorney for his cooperation with them during this term of Court.

All of which the Grand Jury of the Feb. Term 1966 respectfully reports to the Court and having completed its duties on Feb. 21, respectfully requests that it be discharged.
