Q—I have read in your column that a veteran can collect a pension from the VA for the time he served in the service if he retires or becomes unable to work. Is this correct?

A—Veterans of WW I, WW II or the Korean Conflict who were discharged under other than dishonorable conditions after 90 or more days of service may be entitled to a non-service-connected pension if their income from all sources does not exceed $1800. If single, or $3000 with dependents.
