Carlisle was noted state-wide Friday afternoon at the Governor's News Seminar attended by some 200 persons, when a color picture of the new library now under construction was flashed upon the screen. The two-story building will have a book capacity of 30,000. Construction cost of the library, which will be a regional center, will be $72,719. The library is a part of Kentucky's current capital construction program totaling $226.5 million.

Courtesy of kindness One of the other was demonstrated on the streets of Carlisle Sunday afternoon when traffic in both lanes ceased, upon investigation Dept Allison found a turtle was being allowed to cross the street.

Neither courier nor kindness was shown us Sunday afternoon when the driver of a car with license number 806-094 cut across our path at the dam on the Galloway Hill Road. He didn't completely stop, but he didn't run him down, but his driving ability has been reduced in our eyes.

MARRIAGE—The alliance of two people one of whom never remembers birthdays and the other never forgets them.—Eden Nash named Don Allen, on the Johnson day at Carlisle on Thursday, July 28, 1921

Except in regions where local shovers have given temporary relief, Kentucky crops have suffered severely from the lack of rain all during the past two months.

Rev. R.L. Illmore of Phoenix, Ariz. has been extended a call to become pastor of the Christian church here.

Joe T. Embry of Stanford, Ind. has been secured as principal and athletic director of the city school.

H.M. Taylor has placed in the county clerk's office an oil painting of James P. Metcalf at the age of 21. Mr. Metcalf was the second deputy clerk of the county at the age of 15 years.

Re-latives of Samuel Watkins have received word that his body has arrived at Hoboken from overseas.

A touring car driven by Robert Duncan of this city coupled with a truck belonging to a Mayville firm near Blue Licks and caused considerable damage to Duncan's machine.

About 500 merchants signed a paper contributing one dollar per month for twelve months for the support of the band.

Mrs. Conley made 100 of the 500 night gowns for the Nicholas Chapter of the American Red Cross. This is in keeping with "Mother" Conley's way of doing things.

L.S. Hughes resigns as secretary of the Nicholas County Red Cross Chapter to take effect August 1st, and E.L. Poplin will be appointed in his place.

Married—Louise Morgan Coville and Gus T. Shaff. Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Norman Jolly on the 19th, a daughter.

Died—Miss America Clark, aged 52 years, died at her home in Wilmore on Tuesday.

NEWS REPRESENTATIVES MEET IN FRANKFORT—Some 200 representatives of newspaper, television and radio got together at Governor Edward T. Breathitt's 1966 News Seminar July 15 to hear a report from the Governor on Kentucky State Government activities and to ask questions of him and his staff. Breathitt announced that Kentucky currently has under way a $226.5 million construction program for buildings to house education, recreation, health, library, agriculture and other services. Show here are from Left: State Commissioner of Natural Resources, J. O. Matlock and Mr. and Mrs. Warren R. Fisher, editor of the Carlisle Mercury.

Big Business

In the current era, people have been educated to the idea that someone owes them damages every time they stub their toe, and the liability for simply living is becoming so great that the average person can hardly afford to pay for adequate insurance. If you give your neighbor a lift to work in your car and have an accident, he can sue you and collect exorbitant amounts. If a friend walks across your property and injures himself, he can sue you and

Your supply of fresh vegetables does not have to end when summer is over. By planting certain vegetables you can extend the harvesting season to late November or early December. Some vegetables grow better after frost has killed most of the common garden crops.

Watering—Open the furrow, plant the seeds, apply 1 gallon of water to each 10 feet of row, and then cover the seeds. Cabbage, broccoli, cauliflower need to be irrigated. Unless water is available for irrigation, these crops may not mature.

The Blue Grass Lions Fair is scheduled for July 25-30 at the Lexington Trotting Track. The Grand Opening is at 6:30 p.m., but many entries (Home Economics, Woodcraft, Entomology, Photography, & Electricity) will be entered before noon on Monday.

The Nicholas County Fair is August 12 and 13. Catalogues will be available the first of August. A number of changes have been made in the local fair. Watch for changes in the paper later. We know you will do your best to make our youth fair a good one.

Insect Control—All of the fall crops except carrots and radishes will need dusting or spraying with insecticides.

The same insecticides used throughout the summer may be used on the fall crops. These materials are Sevin DFT, malathion, and methoxychlor. Follow the manufacturer's

New 4H Camp Is Dedicated

More than 300 witnesses the fulfillment of a dream Sunday afternoon, July 10. The dream was that of 4-H Club leaders and extension workers who had a 4-H camp to serve the boys and girls of North Central Camp Committee. Fulfillment was the dedication of the new North Central 4-H Camp near Carlisle.

duction of alternate non-crop crops will be possible as was the case in prior wheat program years.

The USDA also announced that the special policy for C-2 wheat will be continued as announced in December 1965. Wheat will continue to be offered at market prices but at not less than 100 percent of the loan rate plus carrying charges.

There will not be millage adjustments for the program for wheat. A cropland adjustment program as it applies to wheat will be announced later.

Wheat may continue to be planted on feed grain acreage on farms participating in both program and feed grains may be planted on wheat allotment acreage.

Producers will be able to substitute wheat for oats and corn on the same basis as in the 1966 program.

If barley is included in the 1967 feed grain program, it will not be substituted in prior years.

If it is included, wheat can be substituted for barley in the same manner as for oats and rye in past programs.

The "excess wheat" program contained in the 1966 program will be continued in 1967.

Under this program the producer can plant in excess of his allotment acreage and be eligible for certification.

The amount of excess wheat which may be planted will be determined by the 1966 program.

"Word-of-mouth advertising" is one of those catchy phrases which has neither meaning nor substance.

Advertising, advertising, advertising, called by word-of-mouth. In practice, the retailer who trusts the future of his business to word-of-mouth is inviting disaster.

Word-of-Mouth Not Good Advertising

The clarity effort which depends upon word-of-mouth advertising, especially that positively and completely reliant upon word-of-mouth paper, has a meaning only in the eyes of the retailer who trusts the future of his business to word-of-mouth.
