MOOREFIELD REVIVAL

The Rev. Joe Alley will be the evangelist in the eight-day revival meetings at the Moorefield Methodist Church, July 1 through August 7. The pastor, Rev. F. J. Galtes, also announced that Carl Beard, a student at Asbury College, will be the song evangelist and soloist.
Rev. Alley comes from the South Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Church. An ordained elder in the Methodist Church, Rev. Alley has been preaching the Gospel since his early teenage life. He comes with a rich background of evangelistic and pastoral experience.
Mr. Beard is presently studying to enter the ministry of music in the church. He will be in charge of the youth meetings prior to each evening service. The main meeting will begin each week on Sunday. All are welcome to participate.

NICHOLAS COUNTY FEEDERS
Carlisle, Ky. Phone 1008

CATTLE TOP THE MARKET

Mr. Franklin Caswell, RR 3, Paris, Ky., recently topped the Paris Livestock Auction with 52 mixed steers that averaged better than 1,000 lbs. These steers were fed ground ear corn and Purina Steer Palina Research from the Purina Research Program Hog Feed.

PROGRAM HOG FEED

We are proud of the job Roger Hamilton, RR 3, Carlisle, did recently with 100 pigs. Mr. Hamilton uses Purina Farrowing Chow w/ Babe Pig Chow, Pig Starter and Hog Chow. His sows recently weaned 9.8 pigs per litter. Our goal is the Nicholas County Feeder. Supply is to have a pig brood sow operator in the county we are in. Feeder is really getting results. Feeder calves and baby calves will be selling higher this fall and extra pounds you can get on now will really pay off.

CALL OUR PHONE 805

WE KNOW ONE LADY WHO THINKS IT'S A SNAP TO SHOP BY PHONE. She wanted to serve the very best of everything. So when she called her greener to order soap, she asked him to bring one to the phone and break it in two. When she heard the loud crisp snap, she knew the beans were good and fresh, so she ordered three pounds! You might say... she got quite a bang out of her telephone!
