This Weeks Spotlight--Buntin's Garage

This business was established in 1927 by W. R. Buntin Sr., who was joined in 1946 by W. R. Buntin Jr. "Junior" Buntin now owns and operates this business as well as Buntin Coin-op laundry next door on Elm Street.

Junior Buntin was born in Nicholas County and graduated from Carlisle High in 1940. He attended the University of Cincinnati before entering the Corps of Engineers in 1942. Upon returning to Carlisle in 1946 he organized a company of Kentucky National Guard. He holds the rank of Lieutenant Colonel in K.N.G. Operations and Training Officer for the 23rd Corp Artillery.

Junior, wife Francis (Henry) and Becky have their home on the Upper Jackstown Road. Son Bob is a sophomore at the University of Louisville, and Becky is a sophomore at Nicholas County High. They are members of the First Christian Church, where Junior serves as deacon.

Mr. Buntin is justly proud of being the first president of the Carlisle-Nicholas County Chamber of Commerce. He is Past Master of Dougherty Lodge No. 65, F.&A.M., member of Olelka Temple Shrine, past commander Veterans of Foreign Wars, and former member of the old Carlisle Board of Education.

Employees are Fred Burnaw, Chester Ockerman, Mrs. Alma Wilson, Bill Medley, Clarence Biddle, Jimmy Evans, Earl Fields.

Junior says, "We only have service to sell! Call us day or night if we can be of any help." Phone 3-50.
