Miss Barnes Becomes Bride Of Harvey Hunt

Miss Judy Diane Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Barnes of Cynthiana, became the bride of Harvey A. Hunt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hunt, Carlisle, at 7:30 p.m., June 9 at the Sidelville Baptist church. The Rev. H. C. Walters, brother in law of the bride, performed the double ring ceremony.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mr. Warren Fighmaster, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white street length dress, with sweetheart neckline and fitted bodice. Her headpiece was made of white velvet bows with matching netting. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid.

Mrs. Wayne Rogers was maid of honor and wore a street length dress of pale blue with matching accessories.

Wayne Rogers served as best man.

A reception was held at the church following the ceremony. Assisting were Mrs. H. C. Walters and Mrs. Johnny Boone.

The bride is a graduate of Harrison County high school. She is now employed at Howard Johnson Motor Lodge in Lexington.

The groom attended Carlisle High School. He is now operating a service station in Cynthiana. The couple will make their home in Cynthiana.
