tend at their own expense one or two students and by express of an individual. He stated that Mr. Wesley expressed a willingness to go, "Papa almost broke up the meeting with his remark, 'Papa told me (Mr. Wesley) to stay as far away from the school as possible.'"
Mr. Wesley's statement about discussion followed and Mrs. Matheis and Mrs. Matheis carried the discussion.

Mr. Swinford then began to collect information on the situation as to how it came about, including the resignation and replacement of the present board of directors. Mr. Swinford stated that he would be putting some of the minutes of Dec. 29, 1955, and Jan. 2, 1956, in front of the board.

Motorola 23" Color

Motorola's new rectangular picture tube is over 5" shorter than conventional color tubes, so the tube eye on the back of the cabinet doesn't stick out so far. This means a Motorola Color TV doesn't leave a big gap between the cabinet and the wall.

"My contention is that we are going to have to hire a superintendent and we hired him as superintendent. We got another motion that we should hire a superintendent; and to me it is wrong when we did it. We thought if we were wrong, we would rescind it."
Leitch: "We wanted to find out whether it was legal or not."
Wesley: "You can rescind or terminate a contract."
Wesley has not been paid a salary yet.
Wesley: "Have you a copy of that contract?"
Livingood: "No, it is a motion. Angellis said we could rescind it if we wanted to."
Wesley: "Now you are telling tale, this is what we read into the motion after it was written."
Livingood: "It went against everything I believe in."
Wesley: "All these directors have been listed-I went to the Assistant Superintendent and Sup't. of Public Instruction and asked what position I could hold. They named me a salary, and they named all of them, and it was never an intention of my own, -they (the board) named all of them -even one would have been enough. They named all and none are teacher instruction."
Mr. Livingood: This is the thing. We are going to have to hire a superintendent and we can't pay two superintendents' salary."
Mr. Melton: "You have employed an attorney and he is going to have to get acquainted. Would it not be desirable to have the attorney to work out all the ramifications involving this and let him make a recommendation of the situation as it exists? It is unfair to ask the attorney, and certainly the board does not want to see one of them wrong on their part."
Mr. Livingood: "This
