BRACKEN ASSOCIATION HOLDS BANQUET

The Bracken Association of Baptists had a G.O. -Y.W.A. Banquet, Friday May 6 at 6:30 at the Carlisle Baptist Church, Carlisle.

Mrs. Eugene Neal, associated G. A. Director, and Mrs. August Peters, associated Y.W.A. Director, planned the program around a nursery rhyme theme.

The church basement was decorated throughout with nursery rhyme characters in Mary's Garden where life size dolls tatted a grassy spot dotted

THE CARLISTE (KY) MERCURY

After singing the blessing everyone enjoyed a meal prepared by the Carlisle ladies who emptied Mother Hubbard's Cupboard.

During the meal, the Fiddlers Three provided music via phonograph. Favorite nursery rhymes were sung by all, lead by Misses Joyce Barbee and Diane Mann.

Following reports about C.A. and Y.W.A. work in different churches presented details on "Old Man Going to Inna," and "Mary, Mary Quite Contrary," and a parody of "The Three Bears".

Then Miss Dorothy Lee Coble of Mayeville, entertained the group by pantomiming a take off on nursery rhymes and "The Deacon". Mother Goose was then introduced in the person of Miss Sydney Portis, Stat Y. W.A. director. Miss Portis took her audience on an imaginary trip around the world where there is Baptist work.

There were about 100 present for the banquet, many dressed in nursery rhyme characters.
