

Buyer, Be Wise, BEWARE!

"Free" Magazine May Cost You On TV Phone "Survey"
When your phone rings and a pleasant, persuasive voice tells you "this is a T. V. program survey," — BEWARE!
If, of course, could be a legitimate survey, but when in Kentucky the odds are that it is a magazine subscription "gimmick."

First National Bank of Carlisle, Kentucky invites you to the Grand Opening of their New Banking Facilities at Main and Elm Streets Saturday afternoon, the twenty-eighth of May nineteen hundred and sixty-six between the hours of 1:30 p.m. and 5:00 p.m.

Regardless of your answers to the questions asked, you will be informed that you have won a "Free" subscription to certain magazines. You will be advised that while the magazines are free, it will be necessary for you to pay the postage and handling. This supposedly amounts to "a few cents per week."
If you take the bait, a "representative" will come to your house to

BIRD FOOD THE YEAR ROUND
People who like to see songbirds in their backyards the year round can have them there by providing the right combination of plants, according to Homer A. Taff, State Conservationist for the USDA Soil Conservation Service, headquartered at Lexington.
"Twelve top-quality trees and shrubs will do the trick in most parts of Kentucky," says Taff. "These plants bear seeds or fruits that are available at different seasons, thus assuring the birds of a ready supply of food no matter what the time of year."
Spring and early summer food is provided by American elm, red mulberry and wild blackberry. Regular summer fare is produced by blackberry, elderberry and serviceberry. Grape, had a game by our game leader, Rudy Hollar. Then the meeting was adjourned.

A 7:30 P.M. time has been well accepted by fans too, as this enables early home arrival especially for those from out of town.
The April meeting of the Shooting Stars 4-H Club was held in Mrs. Clark's room. Our president, Keith Jenkins, called the meeting to order. We had the pledge to the flag. Rudy led the 4-H pledge and Billy Mike led the American. The president asked if there was any new, old, or unfinished business. We read and talked about good posture. Then we worked in our work book. Mrs. Cleaver told us about receiving a card of thanks from Korea. We
