Out Our Way

by Lottie O'Bannon

The C Y F of Wesley Chapel had a fish fry Saturday night in the church basement.

Rev. Robert Scott and members of Wesley Chapel appreciate the interest shown in the coal drive for the church.

We are all able to start another week with more courage after listening to Rev. Frazier's talk on Faith. The total raised Sunday was $226.35. Mrs. Edna Boyd was the sponsor.

Mrs. Mary Walker is sick at her home.

Miss Gertrude Marks is sick at her home.

Miss Alma Johnson is sick at her sister's home, Mrs. Virginia Scrugs.

The public is invited. Come and have your heart blessed with old fashioned gospel Music.

Wool Producers Favor Deductions

Preliminary results of the recent wool producers' referendum show that producers approved increased deductions from wool payments, Freeman M. Hockensmith, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation State Committee, announced today. The deductions are to be used to finance the promotion of wool and lamb.

In a mail referendum which ended Sept. 23, 79.8 percent of the producers owning 79.2 percent of the sheep represented in the referendum favored a proposed new agreement between the Secretary of Agriculture and the American Sheep Producers Council, Inc., which provides for increased deductions and the continuation of the promotion program.

To become effective, the agreement had to be approved by either two-thirds of the producers, or by producers of two-thirds of the volume of production, represented in the referendum. The preliminary results show 59,905 producers voting for the new agreement and 15,137 producers voting against it. The producers favoring the agreement owned 10,858,445 sheep and those opposed to it owned 2,844,580 sheep.

The proposed agreement authorizes continued deductions from payments made under the National Wool Act on wool and unshorn lambs marketed during the 4 years 1966 through 1969. Deductions are authorized at rates up to 11/2 cents a pound on shorn wool and 7 1/2 cents a hundredweight on unshorn lambs, compared with 1 cent and 5 cents in the past.

In Kentucky, 1172 producers, or 89.6 percent of the total 1,308 producers voting, favored the continuation of deductions from wool payments; producers owning 77,556 sheep (87.4 percent of the production represented by the voters) favored the deductions.

Similar favorable referendums were previously held in 1955, 1959, and 1962.

A later announcement will be made on a new agreement.

WORKING FOR THE KENTUCKY TOBACCO INDUSTRY

Senator John Sherman Cooper is the burley tobacco expert on the Senate Agriculture Committee, and tobacco growers know that he works hard for their program. They know that Senator Cooper is responsible for price support at 90 per cent of parity. And they know that Kentucky tobacco is worth over $100 million more today than when Senator Cooper first went to Washington in 1947.

A Summary of the Proposed Kentucky Constitution Revision as it affects

LOCAL GOVERNMENT

A key sentence in the Constitution Revision says: "Units of local government may create any democratic form of government and perform any functions not denied to them by their own charters, the Constitution or general law." Local governments would be able to do what was not specifically denied to them. Now, local governments have only the powers specifically granted to them.

LOCAL ELECTIONS Under the Revision, local voters would continue to select their own elected officers, voting for them at the same time they chose their Representatives and Senators for the General Assembly. Present elective offices would continue until changed by general law.

TERMS OF OFFICE The chief executive and the members of all units of local government would be elected by local voters for terms of no longer than four years.

RELATIONSHIP OF LEGISLATURE The State Legislature could exercise authority in providing forms and functions of local government. It would continue to have the power to make classifications of cities.

PROTECTION OF COUNTY LINES The Constitution Revision would prohibit any county from being merged or abolished without approval of the voters residing in that county. Under the present Constitution a county may be abolished by the General Assembly.

TAXATION AND REVENUES Under the present Constitution, county tax rates are limited to fifty cents per hundred. The Constitution Revision permits rate and limitation to be set by general law. The Revision would permit the State to share a portion of state tax revenue with cities and counties. Also, local units of government, as well as school districts, could finance schools and other public buildings with general obligation bonds.

Robert Matthews, Attorney General

One of a series of messages prepared and published according to legislative directive by Robert Matthews, Attorney General. This message has been authorized under a law enacted by the 1966 Kentucky General Assembly, titled Senate Bill 161, Sec. V. ". . . The Attorney General shall cause the proposed Constitution and schedule or summaries thereof to be further publicized by other communication media in order that the voters of the Commonwealth may have a reasonable opportunity to become informed on the issue to be decided by them."

Educators Offered Free Teaching Kits

Teachers in senior and junior high schools and colleges are invited to order the Internal Revenue Service's FREE Teacher's Kits, consisting of an Instructor's guide and a student workbook for each student through their principal's office or by writing directly to the District Office, Internal Revenue Service, P.O. Box 1735, Louisville, Kentucky 40201, Attention: Teaching Taxes.

Orderblanks, Form 1742, were mailed to each secondary school and college in Kentucky in September. Institutions are asked to consolidate their instructors' requests and submit a single order for reasons of practical economy in the mailing and receipt of the material. Orders received will be shipped in January 1967 in order to be available for use during second semester classes. An additional order blank will be mailed in November to each school which overlooked the first one. Orders should be sent to the District Director's address, P.C. Box 1735, by December 10 at the latest in order to assure receipt in January.

The material enables students to learn how to complete individual income tax returns and returns having income from farming thereon. The latter portion is usually being taught in areas where farm income is a common factor on many returns. The program is a comparatively brief one that can be incorporated into practically any class.

The Internal Revenue Service has been assisting the Kentucky Department of Revenue develop a similar Tax Education Program. Teachers who request the Federal material may also wish to obtain the State kits. They may do so by writing Commisioner J.E.Luckett, Kentucky Department of Revenue, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601.

Resolution

WHEREAS the distinguished members of the Constitution Revision Assembly, after serious and thorough study and debate, have seen fit to propose a revision of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Kentucky; and

WHEREAS the members of the Kentucky General Assembly have seen fit to approve this proposal and to submit it to the voters of the Commonwealth at the General Election scheduled for November 8, 1966; and

WHEREAS the Kentucky Court of Appeals, the highest tribunal in the Commonwealth, has seen fit to approve this procedure for revising the Constitution; and

WHEREAS in our opinion this is the most far-reaching decision the people of the Commonwealth of Kentucky will be called upon to make during this century; and

WHEREAS we have examined the details of the proposed revision of the Constitution and find them to be in agreement with the basic principles of our American form of democratic government, as well as in accord with the needs of our modern society.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT THE Nicholas County Educational ASSOCIATION hereby affirms its strong support of this proposed revision in the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and encourages all parties interested in progress in Kentucky to join with it in securing public approval at the General Election on November 8, 1966.

FURTHERMORE, the Nicholas County Educational Association pledges its complete and dedicated effort to that end.

Signed: Elizabeth R. Clay, president

Vote "YES" for the Constitution Nov. 8

The improved Kentucky Constitution:

- Will save taxpayers millions of dollars on school construction by lowering interest rates on bonds.
- Will cut costs of elections in half.
- Will provide complete exemption of tax on livestock, farm equipment, machinery and intangibles.
- Will permit farmers to assess property for present use rather than at 100% fair cash value.
- Will take schools and courts out of partisan politics.
- Will prohibit Frankfort appointment of local officials.
