

Harlem Globe Trotters Play In Maysville

The Harlem Globetrotters, who play the New York Nationals at Mason County Fieldhouse, Maysville, Thursday night, Nov. 17, have come up with a giant basketballer who may well become a "big find."

He's six-foot-10 Frank Stephens, formerly of Virginia State College, where he averaged 22 points and 13 rebounds in a game in the final of a four-year tenure. He was named to the Central Intercollegiate All-Star team, and Georgia All-Star team.

Stephens played against the "runners a number of times after graduation, they were impressed and they wanted his contract.

The Globetrotters, the world's most famous team—they've played on every continent, except Antarctica—played before a jam-packed house in Maysville last season.

A pretentious set of vaudeville acts—six in number—also will be run-off. These include a heavy of foreign performers who have been seen on various TV programs as well as night clubs.

Troubadour Miss Loni, the "Patch Treat" from Amertown, Ind., and will acrobatic Lee Marx holds down the other post in a big, grand evening of entertainment.

Clara Brookshire is interested in the education of our children.

1. We need Chemistry, Physics and Industrial Arts in our High School program to prepare our children for the future.

2. Unless we restore or update our High School program to meet the requirements of the Southern Association and State board regulations, we will lose our rating.

3. We must have better transportation, safer buildings and more sanitary conditions for all our children.

4. Do you think our tax money is being used wisely?
