Kentucky farmers factual information about the candidates' stand on important issues. By conducting a "Measure-the-Candidates" meeting with both candidates and by publishing the views of the candidates on significant matters, Farm Bureau has demonstrated its responsibility.

Each senatorial candidate will meet with the Kentucky Farm Bureau board of directors. Brown appeared on August 1 and Cooper is scheduled to appear on September 19. Each candidate has been presented with a list of questions to be carefully answered and returned at a later date. The answers to the questions furnished by both candidates will appear in the October issue of the Kentucky Farm Bureau News.

Treated Tobacco Beds Pay Dividends In Spring

Commodity farmers' income has increased recently but without harm to consumers or the food industry.

This remarkable accomplishment - few industries come close to passing part of its cost savings - now gives agriculture the best food cost in its history.

USA officials recently pointed this out. The average family spends about 18 percent of its food bill on tobacco.

Tobacco Curing Tips Offered

Experts believe the tobacco cure is the most important factor in improving quality of tobacco.
