IGA Econo-Meal RECIPE
BY IGA CHEF
Eddie Doucette
CHICKEN TETRAZZINI
Embellish cut-up TableRite cooked, cooked left-over, or frozen cooked chicken in a white sauce. White sauce may be made by blending 2 Tbsp. butter, margarine or chicken fat with 2 Tbsp. flour, then blending and heating till thickened . . . or canned cream of chicken soup may be substituted. Place hot cooked spaghetti in a lightly greased casserole. Pour chicken in cream sauce over spaghetti. Top with grated Parmesan Cheese. Place in 350° oven till bubbly hot and lightly browned. Approximately 20 minutes. (53¢ per serving)

Homemakers

By Mrs. Edgar Scott

Mrs. W.W. Riggs was hostess to the ladies of the Miranda Homemakers on Wednesday, Sept. 14, at 7:30 p.m. at her home. Mrs. Joe A. Stone was co-hostess. 22 members Miss Vickie King and Charlene Darrell attended. Mrs. James Hughes was welcomed as a new member.

Mrs. Walter Kendall gave the devotional. Mrs. Edgar Darrell Sr., vice president, presided over the meeting. The club discussed and made plans for the PTA luncheon to be served Oct. 18 by the county homemakers; the slides of the trip to Oklahoma to be given by Mrs. Marie Wilson and Mrs. George Dale Oct. 4; family life seminar at Lexington, Oct. 11, and a trip to the Ice Capades at the Cincinnati Gardens.

The retiring president Mrs. Maurice King and the retiring secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Cecil Smart were presented gifts by the club.

We reviewed the lesson on "Clothing Guideposts" which was very interesting and put us right to date on styles on men's apparell as well as ladies.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Russell Wills Oct. 12 at 1:00 a.m. The lesson will be "Italian Foods. Don't forget your "Secret Pal" in Oct.
