

Johnson-Mathers Donations Are Welcomed

The Directors of Johnson Mathers Nursing Home and Home for the Elderly have been approved by the home itself in making donations to the nursing home for the elderly. At a recent meeting of the Directors it was decided to ask this newspaper to prepare a news story suggesting that anyone who would like to donate anything to the home the donation would be gratefully and gladly received. The Directors have gone on record as stating that if anyone cares to donate the cost of a room in either the nursing care portion of the building or in the personal care section or just an outright donation, these gifts will be placed in a Trust Fund to be used at some later date for replacement of equipment to make needed repairs to the building or to consider even enlarging the building. The general public is also advised that they might want to discuss with their attorneys if they should ever prepare a will, the possibility of including a bequest to this splendid home, which is doing such an excellent job caring for the elderly people in this county. The Public's attention is invited to the fact that the home itself is making donations to its outstanding citizens who have thoughtfully offered to leave Trust Funds, the income from which have been very beneficial to the county.

Everyone will be interested to know that the home is operating at full capacity and every bed is filled. In addition, William Smith, Administrator, states that he has a waiting list for a good many people who are anxious to get into the home and this is a great illustration of how well the property is being operated and proves that the elderly people are receiving the kindest treatment possible and they and their relatives and loved ones are satisfied with this wonderful facility.

If you have never visited the Johnson Mathers Nursing Home you are urged to go out and see what a nice place it actually is and to learn more about it. No one ever knows for sure when they may have a relative or loved one for whom they will need this type of care.

MERCURY VAPOURS

By Warren R. Fisher

In looking over a letter to Dorsey Winters from Larry Flewelling of Lexington, somehow the old "Mercury Vapors" of a feather, flock together. It's the writing literally of our feathered friends.

In a list of birds recorded by the Flewelling's were over 60 types. Quoting from his letter, "On my first trip out to Lake Carmichael in the spring of this year I was impressed with the bird life in the woods around the lake. The bird life I could see from Mrs. Douglas Hurt's cottage porch really set me on fire. That is why my wife, Ann and I have come back so often this summer. You have a bird watcher's paradise."

The list is as follows: Pied-billed Grebe, Blue-winged Teal, Turkey Vulture, Red-tailed Hawk, Broad-winged Hawk, Sparrow Hawk, Heron, Sandhill Crane, Kildeer, Lesser Yellowlegs, Mourning Dove, Yellow-billed Cuckoo (Rain Crow), Screech Owl, Chimney Swift, Ruby-throated Hummingbird, Yellow-shafted Flicker, Red-bellied Woodpecker, Downy Woodpecker, Eastern Kingbird, Eastern Phoebe, Eastern Wood Pewee, Tree Swallow, Ring-billed Gull, Barn Swallow, Purple Martin, Blue Jay, Common Nighthawk, Red-breasted Nuthatch, House Wren, Carolina Wren.

Catbird, Brown Thrasher, Robin, Wood Thrush, Eastern Kingbird, Blue-gray Gnatcatcher, Starling, Kentucky Warbler, Yellow-breasted Chat, House Sparrow, Eastern Meadowlark, Redwinged Blackbird, Baltimore Oriole, Common Grackle, Brown-headed Cowbird, Summer

Thanager, Scarlet Tanager, Cardinal, Indigo Bunting, American Goldfinch, Rufus-sided Towhee, Savannah Sparrow, Tree Sparrow, Chipping Sparrow, White-throated Sparrow, Sharp-shinned Hawk, Field Sparrow, Mr. Flewelling also notes that Mrs. Hurt identified a White-poll-will-darter. Local Business

By S. H. TALLENT
Chairman, Dept. of Journalism
Governor of Maryland

"A prospect does not normally buy the best value he can get. He normally buys the best value he can get at the lowest price. This is the option of a real estate man who has sold thousands of homes.

"The family looking for a new home usually wants something just slightly better than the home they are leaving. They feel a little guilty and assure about choosing something great deal better, even though the price may be practically the same."

Prospect Must Be Sold On Choosing The Best

"Consumer law" is especially evident among newly married couples. A large portion of the American population is financially affluent, the problem being the consumer is disadvantaged because value and more price has become a major function of retail advertising.

It is not easy to convince a new public it is a good function of retail advertising. The media is not easy to convince. The medium used for selling the idea of quality must be one which provides for individual presentation of facts, but which is also a mass medium. It must be one in which the public has proven faith.

Because the best advertising is such motion, the builders of new and better homes depend upon newspaper advertising as the major means of informing and leading new prospects.

It is far less expensive, more comfortable, and more attractive
