Boothe-McClanahan Vows Spoken Sunday

The wedding of Miss Nancy Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Robert Boothe of Carlisle, and Martin Wayne McClanahan was solemnized at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Carlisle Christian Church.

The Rev. Tom Lipscomb officiated at the double ring ceremony. Magnolia, mums and lilywhite flowers formed a background for the exchange of vows.

A program of organ music was presented by Miss Mary Frances Fisher, with Mrs. Robert B. Harper as vocalist.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a sleeveless gown of candlelight peach de luxe and embroidered Algon lace, with oval neckline and three-length sheath skirt. The train was an empire silhouette caught with self bow in front, long tapered sleeves and full flared skirt.

The bridesmaids wore a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and ivy centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Frankie Hughes, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Anne Boothe, also a sister of the bride, was maid of honor. They wore two toned gowns of moss green, empire bodices and bell sleeves. The willow green, floor-length sheath-skirts were fastened with open-pleated inset back panels. They wore matching pillboxes, created with bows and short tiered illusion veils. They carried cascade bouquets of magnolia leaves centered with chrysanthemum.

The bridesmaids wore

Miss Rita Dayton, Miss Susan Neal, cousin of the bride, Miss Sally Cox, and Mrs. Charles Marshall, sister of the bridegroom, they wore similar gowns.

Laura Worthington, the flower girl, wore a floor-length dress of willow green and carried a basket filled with yellow petals.

Werton Worthington wearing bearskin shoes, Charles Marshall served his brother-in-law a best man. Ushers were Duane Green, Franklin Hughes, Jimmy Letcher, Danny Hatton and Jimmy Shaw.

A reception was held at the Boothe home, assisting were Mrs. John Morford, Miss Liza Galbraith, Miss Faye Letcher and Miss Joy Curtis. Miss Paula Donovan sent the guest register.

After their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. McClanahan will live in Cincinnati, Ohio.
