MERCURY VAPOURS

Being a little off on the subject of fishing, there being no other sport of the moment I had better off report an incident that happened Saturday.
It all began a week or so ago when I corrected myself as to whether or not I would rather feed the fish at Lake Carroon or reach them from the crick-of-the-bridge.

Twenty & Forty-Five Years Ago

Thursday, July 10, 1947
Mrs. Roger Womack, wife of county attorney, sustained a dislocation of her elbow last Thursday afternoon when her horse stumbled, throwing her to the road.
Advertisement that was to be placed in the county high school building to handle the affairs of the county's summer camp and the name of the school changed to the Nicholas County High School.

Agree or Not...?

Say What I Think

By S. C. VAN CULLEN
One Moberg, Iowa - Democrat Gov. Eugene Moberg has announced that he set for his by a uniform Legislature.
Monday faced with the problem of how to pass a bill which would be printed to implement the program in the next fiscal year began Saturday.

'You Should Not Fear Trade Wins'

The cost of telling the truth is less than the cost of lies... Thus, the president of one of America's largest corporations explains why good advertising is honest and in good taste.

FIRST KENTUCKY 'GOURMET QUALITY' HAM SOLD

Western Iowa; and $3 million to start a new medical school at Des Moines. The Senate wants to specify what buildings are needed. Now the measure goes to the conference committee to reach an agreement.

Babson's Point Of View On '67 Forecast

Soviet will gradually give up their aim of world conquest while the Fulbright is persuaded that Americans are drifting steadily toward and that we will eventually capitulate to Communism without a nuclear war.

'FANCY IS AS FANCY DOES'

When we see a good looking lawn in mid-summer, we can be sure we are looking at a lawn that has been cared for by a person familiar with the basic principles of lawn care.
The governor has three days after passage to sign or veto the bill. This, the citizenry is proud of. When published in a newspaper as a legal notice one time, the measure immediately became effective. The measure must be signed by the governor before it is published.
