The highway can lead to permanent sleep.

A. Make frequent rest stops before you get too tired and lose your full perceptions.

B. Check with your doctor on using sedatives and other drugs. The side effects could be dangerous.

C. Don't follow so closely. His auto stop will be your accident. Keep these suggestions when you travel. This will serve as handy reminders, follow them carefully, and on your vacation trip you will ENJOY yourself, not just STAY yourself.

Where Are You Going? To Spend Your Vacation?

What provisions have you made for spending part of your vacation, both time and money, in a hospital, traffic accident, or other emergency?

It shouldn't be necessary if you need the recommendation of the Governor's Coordinating Committee for Traffic Safety.

Here are ten guidelines to follow:

1. Have your car carefully checked before you start your trip—brakes, wheels, alignment, engine, cooling system, brakes, lights, wiper blades, and tires.
2. Allow yourself enough time to get this checked.
3. This is especially true for your products.
4. Traffic laws. Nearly 38,000 traffic fatalities last year were the result of driver violations.
5. Don't drink anything alcoholic just before or while driving—just one beer can dull your alertness.
6. Fatigued drivers—heavy meals make one drowsy, and drowsiness on the road is a sure recipe for disaster.

Sunnyslope Man Brings Medals From Vietnam

Home from Vietnam, his chest is seasoned with medals and his face glows with the months and come out. But Michael D. Hinson's left jacket shows in the village long enough. Last November's 21-month-old veteran caught the impact of a Chinese mortar shell in the village long enough to earn a Marine's back.

The Navy man had been with the Marine group for three months when he was wounded in a 100-meter mortar shell in the village long enough to earn a Marine's back.

"I guess the Commies thought we had more men in the village long enough to treat them like prisoners of war."

"I was my job in the village long enough to treat them like prisoners of war."

"I had about 200 every morning, half of them were 'prisoners of war.'"

"The people were very friendly. My favorite was a village boy. The commander of the village mayor. The Commies had gotten to be and turned her back terribly in a fire."
