

Vets Clinch B.R.L. Flag; Snapp Wins Third Pennant

There is no tomorrow. The Hahn Club again played the ball well to over. It took the pitching of Billy Hunter, Ernie Compson, and John Keneo and excellent defensive plays before the V.P.W. Vets could close the story on the Senators 10-5.

A few new first inning told the story. Gary Hollar popped out to Randall Clay to open the ball game, but then the roof fell in. Seniors starting pitcher (terrific) Terry Trussell allowed the three single hits to Rodney Hunter, walked a man to allow the Vets and Bill Snapp to win their third flag in four years. The Vets' average score runs in the third when Gary Hollar slammed a homey with Don Allen, Darrell and Reese Smoot aboard. The Vets scoring ended in the fifth when Reese Smoot singled and later added 110 of the Vets runs on John Keneo's double to right center.

The Senators looked rough in the first by having runners at first and second, but with two down, Kirt Fry was thrown out stealing. In the third inning the Senators had one assa loaded but the threat died when centerfielder, Ernie Compson made a sensational grab of Randall Clay's long drive to left center. In the fifth it was Clay again but this time getting robbed on a ball that was fouled by only a lock. Clay eventually singled and advanced in second to drive in two runs.

Two more runs scored when catcher John Keneo threw the ball well to second and base but Mgr. J.R. Keneo needing a base out, called a time out. In the seventh inning Mgr. J.R. Keneo called a time out. In the seventh inning Mgr. J.R. Keneo called a time out. In the seventh inning Mgr. J.R. Keneo called a time out.
