Total Burly Supply Enough For 3.26 Years

LXINGTON -- Supply of burly tobacco on hand is about one billion, 900 million pounds, enough to last 3.26 years at the 1966 "base-race" rate...

percent acreage reduction for producers with allotments that run a half acre. He added that if the 1966 crop net an expected $85 million pounds, it will result in an average per-acre yield of about 7,440 pounds—the highest on record.

"Since 1960, the average yield per acre has increased by more than 800 pounds an acre, approximately a 50 percent rise. But total disappearance (domestic and foreign) used is increased only 13.3 percent since 1960," he noted.
