Miss Charlotte Morris Honored With Shower

On Friday, Nov. 3, Mrs. James Tinsler and Mrs. Billy Tinsler gave a miscellaneous shower for Miss Charlotte Morris at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Tinsler...

The First Christian Church, Paris was the scene, Saturday, Oct. 25 at 2:30 P.M. of the wedding of Mrs. Thomas R. Poe, son of Mrs. and Mr. Thomas R. Poe, of Paris, and Miss Susie Duncan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Spurr of Lexington, Ky.

The bridal party was decorated with baskets of white chrysanthemums and light blue roses in candelabras. William Crimes, organist, presented a program of musical music prior to the ceremony and played the traditional wedding marches for the entrance of the bride's party.

The groom's party was escorted by Walter Link, the bride wore a floor-length tulle gown of white satin, fashioned with a round neckline, bell-shaped sleeves which flared at the cuffs and featured lace applique. Also featuring the gown was lace trim on the skirt. Her shoulder-length veil of situation was held in place by a cluster of lace petals trimmed with pearls and crystals. She carried a cascading hand bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchid from which fell streamers.

The master of honor, Mrs. Jerome and Mrs. Paula, cousin of the bride, wore a floor length gown of rough red velvet and American beauty silk, fashioned in empire style with bustle panels at the two shades of rose in the back. The bodice featured a hoop neckline and elbow length sleeves. She carried a crescent hand bouquet of pale pink daisy pom poms centered with dark red roses, which was tied with pink velvet streamers. Her bridesmaid wore a three tiered bouffant veil which was held in place by an arrangement of roses and forget-me-nots.
