STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS

The Bible

He will give you the desires of your heart.—(Psalms 37:4)

It is good to take time to plan. Successful people always plan a meeting a meal, a day's work. The most successful people take time to plan with God's help and direction. Let us take time to talk with God about our life plans now. Then let us write them down. Let us write down what we want this morning, today, this week, this month, this year. Let us thank God that He has already given us all good and that we can have any good desire.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Accusing the Wrong Man

Late one night a widow, living alone, heard footsteps approaching her home. While she lay in terrified silence, an intruder entered the room, seized her jewelry, and departed.

Feeling sure she had recognized the man as a neighborhood gardener, she filed burglary charges with the police. But at the trial, the gardener produced such an airtight alibi that the jury found him innocent.

At this point he decided to switch from a defendant into a plaintiff. He filed suit against the widow for damages on grounds of "malicious prosecution."

"Since her accusation against me was a mistake," he argued in court, "she ought to pay for calling me a criminal and making me go through the ordeal of a trial."

But the court refused to hold the widow liable. The judge said a person cannot be held responsible for malicious prosecution so long as he had at least "probable cause" for making the original accusation — even if the charge did not stand up in court.

If an accuser does bring charges without having probable cause to believe they are true, then he may indeed be held liable for damages. For example:

One man was held liable for malicious prosecution because he brought unfounded theft charges against a business rival—simply as a means of collecting a debt.

And another man was held liable for malicious prosecution because he brought unfounded trespassing charges against a neighbor —simply as a means of throwing a scare into other possible trespassers.

But as a rule, courts are cautious about imposing liability on an accuser. For if such liability was imposed too freely, people might be discouraged from reporting crimes to the authorities. Even the well-meaning citizen might decide to keep quiet, rather than run the risk of being sued afterward for his pains.

Law enforcement relies heavily on its lines of communication with the general public. Giving an accuser reasonable protection against claims of malicious prosecution is one way of keeping those lines of communication open.

BIG PROFIT FOR FEEDMAN

We heard recently about a feed company whose salesmen make $40 to $50 a ton selling the companies protein blocks. The freight on the blocks is about $12 at ton from the companies plant to the farmer's barn. The blocks sell for $160 to $190 a ton depending on what the market will bear. They are good blocks and the cattle will eat them, but we don't believe the profit picture for the cattle feeder would be bright if he had to pay that much for blocks. Purina Protein Blocks sell for many, many, many dollars less! Our freight is about 75¢ less because the product comes from KENTUCKY, WE WORK ON VOLUMN! So does the Ralston Purina Company---their customers purchased over 10,000,000 tons of feed last year---more than the combined total of the next six largest feed companies! VOLUMN---gives you the best at the lowest possible cost. Stop and compare our Purina Protein Blocks for quality and price.

HELP YOUR HOGS GET MORE GAIN IN CORNFIELDS THIS YEAR

Purina's Hog Supplement Ovals fed to hogs in cornfields help them make more efficient gains than hogs getting corn alone. PURINA HOG SUPPLEMENTS OVALS are BIG---designed for feeding on the ground, so need to buy or build expensive feeders, BIG OVALS CUT FEED WASTE to the minimum. Balance the ration of hogs in cornfields with Purina Hog Supplement Ovals. Feed 1 pound of Ovals per head per day from 50 to 100 pounds and 3/4 pound of Ovals per head per day from the time shoats weigh 100 pounds till they're ready to ship. You'll find Purina Hog Supplement Ovals priced right, too.
