Dear Santa,
I am a little boy almost two years old. I'm writing this letter to you because I am not old enough to write for myself.

If you could Santa, would you please bring me a Musical Piano, near a set of plow and hoes, for my tractor, some Match box toys, and some clothes. If there is anything else you want to bring me that's O. K. with me.

Don't forget the other little boys and girls. Oh, by the way, the little boy forget mommy and daddy. There will be something for the little boy named old. My name is Robert Lee. I have a name is Billy. Both of us would like to have a tractor to ride and a big wagon with wheels. Anything else you want to bring me that's O. K. with me.

Your Little Boy,
Randell Lee Howard

Miss Donna Stone Becomes Bride Of Mr. Jerry James Galbraith

Miss Donna Stone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald H. Stone of Carlisle, became the bride of Jerry James Galbraith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Galbraith of Carlisle on Saturday, Dec. 7.

The Carlisle Baptist Church was the setting for the wedding at 7 o'clock. Galbraith, cousin of the double ring ceremony with the Rev. Dallas Sugg, performing the double ring ceremony.

A basket of white flowers, greenery and lighted candles decorated the altar.

Mrs. Robert Cooney, organist presented a program of traditional wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was escorted to the altar by her brother, James Galbraith. The groom was escorted by his brother, James Galbraith. The bride wore a white gown and the groom wore a tuxedo.

After a short wedding trip to the coast, the bride and groom will be at home at 328 Chestnut Street, Carlisle.

A reception followed at the church. The brides table covered with a pink cloth, held a tiered wedding cake and lighted candles. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Glen Kimberling, Mrs. Edgar Scott and Miss Rosemary Galbraith.

Mr. Galbraith is a 1967 graduate of Nicholas County High School and is attending Central Kentucky Ave. Vocational School.

Mr. Galbraith is also a 1967 graduate of Nicholas County High School and is attending Central Kentucky Ave. Vocational School.
