dingen. The memoirs of Catherine Almedigen's childhood. This is a beautiful understated book which extends understanding and toughes the heart; Masters of Music, by Dorothy Samachson. An outline of musical history and a biography of each composer. A useful, usable tool.

Ken Boyer, by David Lipman. The career of the St. Louis Cardinals' third baseman, the National League's "most valuable player" for the 1964 season; Return to Hackberry Street, by Christine Govan. The author has re-created with great charm and wit the special atmosphere, the variety and fiavor of life in a small Southern town in the early 1900's; Tom's Tower, by Janet McNeill. "The Castle is there" are the words written in Tom's handwriting on a note found by his schoolmaster. Then begins a fantasy in which Tom, two bizarre characters, an antisocial hermit, and a lazy witch become official guardians of the castle's treasure; Wizard of Tuskegee, by David Manner. Plays up Carver's contribution to space-age synthetics. The broad interest range and, for the most part, straight-forward style make it a useful addition.

Big Nick, by George Laycock. The story of a remarkable black bear who lived in a National Park and became something of a problem. The author has described the hazards and pleasures of a bear's life; Brim Sails Out, by Michael Gaunt. An exciting adventure for readers. No animal ever went out of the valley. If you did disaster followed which was what happened to Brim and his friends; Earthless, by William Mayne. The author masterfully blends the commonplace, with the supernatural in an eerie, gripping tale which should appeal to good readers; The Emperor's Arrow, by Burke Boyce. Based on a legend of the middle ages, this is the story how Pepin, a serf, helped Charlemange find a cure for the Black Death.

A car must have a 1968 license tag before it can be inspected, State motor vehicle inspection director Dunlap Elliot says. "Many motorists didn't realize this and we have had to turn them down,"

Otherwise, says Elliott, the program has "gotten off the ground fairly smoothly."

January and February are voluntary months for the inspection. Beginning in March, inspections must be made by the end of the month corresponding to the last digit on the license tag.

For example, the numbers ending in 3 require inspections during March, those ending in 4, in April; in May, and so on through 0 which must be inspected in October. And, since January and February are the voluntary months, the numbers ending in 1 must be inspected in November and those ending in 2, in December.

This system will be in effect this year only. Beginning in 1969, each vehicle must be inspected the same month it was checked this year.

The maximum fees as set by state law is $2,50 per inspection. The inspection includes tail lights, head lights, turn signals, parking lights, exhaust system, tires, brakes and brake linings, horn, front suspension, windshield wipers, mirror and all window glass.

Necessary repairs must be made within five days and the car returned for re-inspection. There will be no charge for the extra inspection.

It is unlawful for motorists to use their vehicles on the highways after the five days have elapsed unless the necessary repairs have been made.

Automobiles Must Have '68 License Before Inspection

Failure to do their homework is preventing many Kentucky motorists from qualifying their automobiles for the final exam in the State's new compulsory motor vehicle inspection program, which went into effect Jan. 1.

HOW MUCH ALIKE Is Your Faith And Catholicism?

To help establish inter-faith understanding the Knights of Columbus are offering, free of charge, this concise 36 page booklet which clearly sets forth the basic teachings of the Catholic Church. It explains, for instance;

WHY Christ Himself instituted the seven sacraments; Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Eucharist, Penance (or Confession), Matrimony, Holy Orders and Anointing of the Sick.

WHY Catholics believe that perfect union with the Creator can be achieved only through the practice of sacrifice (the Mass). The booklet also describes how Christ instituted the Mass and why it plays such a vital role in the Catholic faith.

WHY the basic structure of the Church has remained unchanged since the time of the Apostles . . . and why Catholics believe that the authority of their priests and bishops must be recognized.

Regardless of your religious convictions, you will find that this booklet will give you a fresh insight into Christianity and how it began. There's no obligation or cost and no one will call on you.

KILL LICE AND GRUBS

One sure way to rid your cattle of lice and other crawling insects is to dust them good with Purina Lice and Grub Killer. Stop the rubbing and blood sucking with Purina Lice and Grub Killer now.

STRETCH YOUR HAY

Many dairymen have discovered that by adding Purina Golden Bulky to their milking ration they can reduce the amount of hay fed daily and add more milk to the tank. Each 100 lbs. of Purina Golden Bulky contains six bushels of extra nutrition--Golden Bulky is sweet, bulky, high in vitamin A and D--extra minerals that cows need to produce milk at high levels.

FOLKS ARE FINDING OUT

Yes sir, folks are finding out--Pigs start fast, right on Purina! 55,246 pigs started on Purina made a pound of gain from only 1.51 lbs. of Purina, plus sow's milk from three pounds to 50 lbs. This record proves Purina Pig Starters help pigs make remarkably fast gains. And heavy pigs at weaning are ready to ship from two weeks to a month earlier. That's where the right start really pays off for the hogman today! Start your pigs the Purina Way to make them early eaters--fast, efficient gainers.
