

Harrison Rural Electric Meeting Held; 4000 Members Present

Approximately 4,000 members and guests of Harrison Rural Electric Cooperative witnessed the crowning of Miss Doris Jade Gray as the reigning Miss Harrison RECC at the cooperative's annual membership meeting on Monday, July 15, 1968. Two directors were also elected by the members during the meeting which was held at the Rural Electric Farm near Cynthiana.

Miss Gray, 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Gray of Rt. 2, Cynthiana will represent Harrison RECC in the state RECC beauty pageant which will be held during the State Fair in Louisville

In August, the winner of the state title will represent Kentucky's rural electric cooperatives in the national finale to be held early next year in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

Miss Susan Childs, who won the 1967 title, crowned the new queen. A total of eight contestants participated in the contest. Each received a gift of a silver tray in appreciation of her participation.

Second place honors went to Miss Rosemary Locke, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Herrington of Route #1, Cynthiana.

The newly elected directors are Wilson Palmer, Harrison County and Emery Story, Bracken County, serving as judge of the election were John Thomas Dawson, Rt. 1, Cynthiana, Earl Jenkins, Rt. 2, Juddville and Marvyn L. Thompson, Rt. 1, Foster, Ky.

Reports and projective presentations were made by Cooperative President, James S. Patterson, manager W.D. Pease, and Secretary-Treasurer Wilson Palmer. In their reports they discussed some of the activities of the cooperative and reviewed some of its future plans. Hugh Spurrick, manager of East Kentucky RECC, Winchester, and J.K. Smith, Louisville, manager of Kentucky Association of Rural Electric Cooperatives, also spoke.

hands" or "eat good food." All good answers but, in comparison with the importance of pill-taking, innumerable patients they could leave only when they supplied the correct answer. Word got around fast.

In short order, all TB patients in the hospital abated their long-range focus to pills. In fact, many of the patients stopped the doctor on the ward to say, "I know the answer--can I go home?" Have pills, will travel.

To keep the focus on pills, your TB association has leaflets and information for patients' families.
