180 Attend County Alumni Banquet

Saturday night, June 1, at 7:00 p.m., climaxed a year of anticipation and planning, with the success of the 10th annual Nicholas County Alumni Banquet.

The welcome was extended by Billy Doyle, president, followed with the invocation by Mrs. Marvin Caswell, Chapman, following the invocation the dinner was served, under the supervision of Mrs. Glenn Clay.

Following the dinner the Blue Licks Christian Church quartet consisting of Mrs. June Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hinton and Tommy Hinton sang, "How Great Thou Art", accompanied by Miss Judy Cline on the piano.

Sheerry Vice, corresponding secretary, presided the business session with the mill call of classes. The class of 1958, received both loving cups, having the largest number in attendance and the greatest percentage of their class present.

The next item of business was the reading of 1967 Alumni Banquet minutes by Kent Mann, recording secretary. Following this Mrs. Betty Lynn Conrad, treasurer, gave a treasurer's report for the past two years.

Cretak Watkins, president-elect, presented the slate of 1968 officers. They were presented to the assembly: Gerald Watkins, president; Bill Mathew, vice president; Terrence Vice, corresponding secretary; Kent Mann, recording secretary; Terrence Vice, treasurer; and David Moore, chaplain. It was moved by James Deane that we accept these officers by acclamation, the motion passed by members raising their right hands.

Following the business session, Donald Elder, principal of Nicholas County High School presented the plaque presented by the Alumni Association in honor of the late Mrs. Raymond J. Wesley and Teddy Poe. This is to honor deceased teachers on the Nicholas County High School faculty starting with Mrs. Wesley and Mrs. Poe.

Gerald Watkins presented the outstanding senior award to Larry Hinton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hinton. Larry was crowned the high school faculty on the basis of Leadership, Scholarship and Citizenship.

Joe Talbert, representing the Class of 1958, presented a paper reading, "How Living... school board member, pronounced the benediction. Following the banquet a social was held in the high school cafeteria featuring Howard Owen's band from Alexandria.
