

Braves Upset Giants; Vets Win 14th

By Allen Waugh
 Babe Ruth contest, Monday, 12-6. Once again the Giants played "deadball" baseball, and it cost them a victory. The Braves didn't waste any time but started early in the first inning to score, with one out Dennis Herrry was safe on Roger Walker's error. Jimmy Gannace atoned for his error by forcing Gannace out on second and Steve Mason and Owen Harner were safely fielder's choice. Tischer then walked Jim Parker and Frankie Abene but Kenneth Smead bounced to the pitcher to end the inning with only three runs.

The Giants scored all six of their runs in the fourth inning with one out. Braves pitcher Dennis Herrry hit Dennis Hunt then walked four others. Wayne Framan, Mason landed double knocked in runs five and six for the hour. Jim Parker then came on in relief and sniped the Giants for the rest of the day. The Braves got four runs in the fifth and sixth frames and won in the fourth to acquire five of the 12-6 victory. Larry Tischer was making a bid for his fourth straight victory but had to take the loss. His record is now 3-1.

The Giants were on the winning end of the day as they romped the collar-dwelling Dodgers 14-2. Roger Walker led the way for the Giants with three singles in four trips and letting in four runs. Milton Brant was the winning pitcher. He gave up only two hits and struck out 10.

The Senators has another shot at being the first team to skip the Vets streak but they couldn't do it. Not even with a game made the league leaders be halted. A 10 run, 12 hit attack killed all hopes for the newly Senators.

It seemed everything failed for the Senators even manager Kenney's protest that the Vets should get another bat in the last of the sixth when his team was behind by only one run. The Senators gave a big enough rally in the fifth to knock out pitcher Billy Hunter from the mound. Four errors and five walks gave the Senators their five runs. Final totals Vets 10 runs, 12 hits, 2 errors. Senators, 3 runs, 1 hit, 2 errors. The Vets have now won 14 straight games. They will try for the 15th and 16th this week.

The Vets won their eighth game as the Braves, a 15-3 victory prevailed at the stadium. The game, Terry Beck back started for the Braves and pitched four innings, allowing 12 runs, seven hits, one error, and struck out seven. Harner came on to pitch the last three innings and allowing only three runs and four hits in three innings. Harner lost his pitching appearance of the year by struck out three and didn't have a single batter in his three innings of relief. Steve Kimberling got the win for the Vets. Gerald Hutton came on in relief in the sixth.

Miss Griffin Attends Selective Service Meet

Miss Hattie Griffin represented Nicholas County at a state-wide Selective Service meeting last week. The meeting was held in Louisville from Monday through Thursday. A banner was held on Tuesday at which time General Lewis H. Hays, National Director of selective service from Washington, D.C., was a guest speaker. Miss Griffin was presented a 25-year Selective Service pin at one of the meetings by state Director Col. Taylor Davidson.

The equivalent of two years of liberal arts and science education is required for admissions to the professional program of the College of Pharmacy at the University of Kentucky which then introduces the student to a three-year program.

Fleming-Mason Electric Co-op Program July 12

Flemingburg, Ky. (Special)—The 5th annual meeting of Fleming-Mason Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation will be held Friday July 12 at the RECC grounds on Route 32 at the city limits of Flemingburg. The program, which will be open to the public, will include the annual business session, the ever popular "Miss Fleming-Mason RECC" contest and professional entertainment.

C.J. Ross, manager of the cooperative, stated that two directors will be elected at the business session and that an audio-visual report of the years activities of the Co-op will be presented.

Applications for entrants in the Miss Fleming-Mason RECC contest are now being received and entry blanks may be obtained at the cooperative's office. Entry blanks are also included in the Rural Light insert in the Rural Kentuckian magazine. Last year's winner was Miss Paula Gardner of Mason County. The contest offers many prizes and opportunities to the winners including entry in the State contest in Louisville in August where Miss Kentucky RECC will be selected. She will represent the state in a national contest to be held in Atlantic City.

The professional entertainment this year has been selected to please all ages. Heading the group will be the Barber Allen show which has appeared on radio and television, entertained the armed forces both here and abroad and which has appeared on stage at the famous "Golden Nugget" in Las Vegas, Nevada.

There will also be performances by Joseph Smiley, magician and Sam the Champ.

Registration for Fleming-Mason members will begin at 6:00 p.m.
