

NEWSPAPER GET THINGS DONE

Martha Jane Livesay, 22
Margaret I. King Library
University of Kentucky
Lexington, Ky. 40506

The Courier Mercury

VOLUME 101 NUMBER 42

ESTABLISHED 1867

CARLISLE, KENTUCKY 40311 THURSDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1968

8 PAGES

PRICE TEN CENTS

NEWSPAPER GET THINGS DONE

South Central Bell Open House Tonight

South Central Bell will hold open house Thursday (tonight) from 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. at the new South Central Bell building on Chestnut Street.

Homecoming Queen
Dorina Kay Scott, 17, of Nicholas County High School was crowned Homecoming Queen Friday night at half-time of Nicholas-Mayaville football game. This honor is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl S. Scott. She is a variety cheerleader, a member of Tri-Hi-V, Pep Club, F. H. A., and Annual staff. She was elected by the students.

Joe D. Blount Heads Girl Scout Fund Drive

Volunteers for the Girl Scout Fund Drive to be held this week have been organized under the direction of Joe D. Blount, Girl Scout Fund Drive Chairman.

P.T.A. Annual Fall Conference

The Seventh District of the Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers call all regularly elected delegates and one alternate from each member school to the annual fall conference at the Collins Lane School in Frankfort, on Oct. 23. Registration fee of 50¢ per delegate is to be paid at the time of registration.

Time For Smiling

Everybody expresses delight as Joe D. Blount, Girl Scout Fund Drive Chairman, hands a check to Nina Young, marking the beginning of a fund drive. Pictured on-lookers are at left, Wanda Smith and Jamie Couch, and on the right, Page Shumate and Ginger Myers.

3 Sentenced to Prison May Be Involved In Wave of Area Thefts

September break-ins at the T. T. Hill and Son Store in Germantown and the Jabowen Mill, a feed grinding and farm supply store between Irving and Elizaville, have been linked to three Northern Kentucky men who were caught fleeing the scene of a third robbery in Nicholas County. The men may be implicated also in the September robbery of the Tollenborn branch of the Citizens Deposit Bank (Washington).

Occupational Tax Pros & Cons Discussed By Council Tuesday

City Council discussed at length the pros and cons of an occupational tax for Carlisle at its Tuesday night meeting.

Community Welcomes Rev. H. B. Kamlage

Rev. H. B. Kamlage, Administrator of the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe, was welcomed to Carlisle in a special service Sunday, Oct. 13 at 7:30 p.m. at the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe by the Nicholas County Ministerial Association.

County Horse Show Results Are Listed

The Nicholas County Horse and Pony Show was held September 28 at the Carlisle Recreation Field. Ringmaster was Luther Anderson and judges were Henry Hunt and Jim Cable.

Adult Net Players Call Dave Zachary

Nicholas County Recreation League Adult Basketball will open in Nov. Persons wishing to enter team play notify David A. Zachary, business phone 289-2724 at home 289-2789 within the next two weeks.

Defense Tightens; But Jackets Fall

By Allen Waugh
Yes, it's true, four weeks without a score, but this time it wasn't so bad. Nicholas County despite a tough defense, lost to the surprising Moreheadville team 13-0.

Three Carlisle Girls In Auto Accident

Three Carlisle teenage girls were involved in a automobile accident Thursday, Oct. 10 about 4:30 p.m. when the car they were riding in went out of control at the intersection of U.S. 68 and Ky. 35.

Jece Membership Drive

The Carlisle Jaycees are currently engaged in a membership drive, which will be highlighted by a banquet on Wednesday, Oct. 23, at the Town and Country Restaurant.

Four On Governor's Tour

Paul Garrett, Harry Wolf Jr., Charles Cox and Wayne Shumate left Tuesday, Oct. 15 on the Governor's Tour. They are scheduled to return Thursday.

Window Shopping?

John DeAtley reported to have lost control of the above car the evening of October 9 while driving south on Broadway, sidewalked another car and landed just inches from the glass show window of Wyrick's Fashions at the corner of Main and Broadway. Damage to the building was minor, it was believed that a large sign at the base of the window kept the car from crashing thru. DeAtley was treated at the Nicholas County Hospital for cuts.

When the 1960 was arrested one of the pet owners, Agasson supposedly picked up appeared to be a woman but turned out to be a man dressed in women's clothes and carrying a gun. However, this was not discovered until after "she" had spent the night in jail.

Baseball Clinic For Little League

Woody Fryman, Pitcher for the Philadelphia Phillies, will be giving a baseball clinic for the Little League National League All-Star team of 1968 on Oct. 27 at 10 a.m. at the Carlisle Baseball organization meeting on Thursday. Other members of this year's baseball program are: Walter, 11, at the 6:00 p.m. Elementary School Gym at 400 S. Tolen.

