Feed grain supplies in 1968-69 are expected to be 220 million tons, up over 8 million tons from last year.
The 1968-69 feed grain crop will total 174 million tons, or about 2 million tons above last year's record level.

SENSING THE NEWS

By Thurman Senning Executive Vice President
THE MAJORITY HAS HAD ENOUGH
While it was only a month ago that a section of the U. S. public was deeply unimpressed with the country was taking, so many, if any, saw any life of the depth of the protest against "liberal" permissiveness to allow under the surface of the nation.

Now, only a few weeks before the presidential election, the protest seems to have become a tidal wave. Vice President Humphrey's campaign has an air of falling about it, and the only hope of a conservative vote will be so split that the Great Society forces will squeak through to victory.

Whatever the final election outcome, it is clear that a fundamental change has taken place in American politics. For years the "dogmen" in America life were the white collar and blue collar citizens who felt their taxes and supported the welfare state. The dominant left-of-center forces in the middle class and earned the benefits of the great middle class. They were the majority in the United States and cared to the detriment of the average American citizen.

George Miller, city mail carrier, has at his home a large golden eagle which he captured near Hinton last week after the bird had been caught in some bushes and had fallen into some bushes.
Mrs. and Mrs. Sidney have at their home on North Street a large white rabbit which was captured near Hinton last week after the rabbit was captured in some bushes and had fallen into some bushes.

Cynthiana's Cerebral Palsy Center Moves To Eastside Elementary School

Educational facilities have to improve, expand, alter themselves as pressing circumstances call—and look can well cite one of the most important changes in Harrison County.
The cerebral palsy center, presently located in the Baptist Church Annex, has become a vital part of the school system here, bringing forces to Eastside Elementary School.

HAPPINESS is leaving you are loved by "Franklin". Keeping a watchful and considerate eye on her calls, Mrs. Ira Franklin leads her special education (cerebral palsy) youngsters in constructive play activities. On the extreme right is her youngest daughter, Mrs. Mrs. Rex Jones of Carlisle. (Staff photo by Warren R. Fisher)
