Farm Receipts Higher New York Survey Says

NEW YORK -- As a whole, Nicholas County farmers closed the past year in better financial shape than farmers in most parts of the country. Despite a downturn in prices of farm products and livestock, many of them succeeded in boosting their gross receipts above the previous year's level. The better showing was due, in part, to favorable weather conditions, lighter plantings and heavier fertilization, improved operating efficiency, made possible by the use of more mechanical equipment, was also a factor. In contrast to the results reported for the local area, farmers and ranchers in many parts of the nation were able to show little or no improvement. The findings are based upon a survey conducted by the Standard Rate and Data Service. It gives figures on gross farm income and farm population for each county in the United States. In Nicholas County, it shows, farm receipts in the year totaled $8,422,000. That was the gross amount, before taking operating costs and taxes into account. The bulk of it consisted of cash receipts from the sale of crops and livestock. The rest was made up of government payments and "income in kind", which is the value of the home-

HHH To Launch Ky. Campaign

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey will launch his Kentucky campaign for the presidency in person, Friday, Sept. 20, when he will speak at a major state-wide fund raising gala at Freedom Hall, in Louisville. Humphrey, the Democratic presidential nominee, will speak at the $100-a-plate dinner, which begins at 6 p.m. Campaign forces say Kentucky will be one of the Vice President's key campaign efforts. The announcement of Humphrey's visit was made jointly by the "lad and dad" co-chairmen of the presidential kick-off gala, Robert H. Hensley Sr. and his son, 23-year-old Robert H. Hensley II.
