Stanford Crushes Jackets; Billy House Breaks Leg

By Allen Waugh
Former Carlisle High School coach Bill Ed Leeds along with his Stanford Wildcats invaded Nicholas County Jackets 46-0.
Playing their first home game of the season, the Jackets were giving thousands fans a real show in the opening minutes of the first quarter.
Willie Hogg received the Stanford kick-off on the ten and carried the ball 23 yards to the Nicholas 33. Then after a five yard punting play which put Gary Crawford from Billy House with a 37 yard pass play which put the home team on the Stanford 35 yard line. One play later the roof fell in, Crawford again rolled out to pass but the ball fell into the hands of Stanford's Wing Hart who ran the ball 27 yards for Stanford's first score. The 35 yard line was the closest the Jackets had the ball in Stanford Territory.
The above Stanford line held the Jacket defense and enabled James Howard to squeeze three yards for the Wildcat's second T.D.
With time running out in the first quarter Bobby Denny carried the "pigskin" 18 more yards and gave Stanford a 19-0 lead at one period of play.
Nicholas received the ball in the second period of play and was moving good till Bill Robinson fumbled the ball over to Stanford. Wildcat quarterback James Hogg connected with Bobby Jones on a 40 yard pass play and six more points. The Wildcats tried to kick their P. A. T. but Randall Clay blocked the effort.
With Stanford again moving the ball toward Stanford territory Steve Paul fell on a Stanford fumble but time ran out in the hall before the Blue-Jackets could take advantage of the break. At the half-way mark the score stood 26-0.

But Stanford wasn't through. Early in the fourth quarter Mike Welch ran 60 yards with the football for another T.D. Again the powerful Wildcat defense pushed the Jackets deep in their own territory to help Billy House.
Two points worth on a safety.
That wasn't Billy House's only score. Welch took the right side of the field and ran 66 yards. Mike Powers kicked the extra point.
Freshman End and quarterback quickly Marshall replaced the injured Gary Crawford with the ball deep in Nicholas Territory. Helped move the ball to the Nicholas five but the Jackets were forced to punt. David Corechia fell on the ball on the goal line after the punt attempt was blocked and added point #46. Roger Walker blocked the kick.
Nicholas received several injuries in the game but the big blow was six Hard back Billy House who received a broken leg early in the first half. He will be out for the remainder of the season.
In his own season Hogg carried the ball for 26 times and 162 yards rushing. He also was on the receiving end of several pass attempts.
Next week Paris will return to Nicholas this year the Jackets will try and get their first win over against the Greyhounds. Come and enjoy yourself and see exciting high school football.
Willie Hogg and Gary Crawford both received ankle injuries late in the game. This was only the third game of the season and the fifth injury of the year for coach Massie's Blue-Jackets.

Local Consumer Credit Set At $850 Per Family

(Special to the Mercury)
How much does the average family in Nicholas County owe in the form of installment debt?
The answer to that question is the buy now, pay later plan in their purchases of automobiles, dishwashers, furniture and other durable goods in recent years, locally and in other communities across the country, there has been a steady growth in installment debt.
In the first six months of this year, alone, the overall increase has been nearly seven percent according to Federal Reserve Board and Commerce Department figures. It indicates a spending rise in consumer spending. The two go hand-in-hand, when spending picks up, so does the use of credit.
7/6 of the middle of this year, the reports show, installment credit in the nation reached $80 billion as compared with $75 billion on January 1st.
It was equivalent, on the average, to nearly 15 cents out of every dollar of family income, steel taxes.
In Nicholas County, installment debt at midyear came to an estimated $850 per family, based on the national findings and on average earnings and expenditures locally.
That was the average amount. However, some families have debt at that level, some that do, and the per family figure is somewhat higher. For the local population as a whole, installment debt totaled approximately $1,695,000 on July 1st.

This includes automobile loans, credit on purchases of other consumer goods, personal loans and loans for home repair and modernization, included are mortgage debt, charge accounts and simple payment plans.
The amount of debt, it is noted, varies from family to family but bears a direct relation to the family's income. Local buying habits and consumer credit are being studied by the Federal Reserve Board.
In general, over $1 out of $7 of net income, after taxes, is going into repayments of these installment debts.
In Nicholas County, it comes to approximately $70 per month per family, on average.
Are credit men worried? Not at all, they know that people are earning more than before and, therefore, can handle the bigger debt load.
