

FROM A TEENAGE MOVIE-MAKER

Animated Mouse Solves Yule Problem

Once upon a time in Bloomington, Ind., there lived a small mouse who was a very useful character, hired from the mouse house by a truck that rolled down a hill and headed for the front door on Christmas Eve.

Since it was the day before Christmas in the film and Peter had to be in the way to receive any presents from Santa, Peter tried everything to move the truck.

Finally the thought of Santa inspired him. He slid down the chimney just in time to have a merry Christmas after all. And just in time for the price for his creation in the Kodak Teen-Age Movie Awards contest.

Peter's Christmas, created by a special award for cartoon animation. The film, "Peter's Christmas," was made by a 16-year-old boy from the town of Carlisle, Ky.
