OUTSTANDING A-1 CLUB LEADER. Mrs. James Simons has devoted many years of service to the youth of the community as a leader of the A-1 Club. She is currently leader of the Carlisle 7th and 8th grade club. The club is the largest and the outstanding club in the city. Mrs. Simons has increased more than 100 members in the past year. She has worked this year and has urged them to become involved in all club activities. Members of her club are included in each of the year projects offered in the program. She works hard on helping members prepare speeches and demonstrations for the county fair. She gives her club a nice treat for the getting her club's acts ready to carry out and complete their projects to the best way they can. Her devotion to youth work has won wide recognition in educational circles and A-1 Club work. The community is fortunate to have such an interested lady working with our youth.
