THE FAMILY LAWYER

Michigan as the Movies

During the implementation of a new, more stringent law on an act to amend the law on the subject of the family law, the Michigan Legislature has passed a bill which is expected to be signed by the Governor, John Edwards, before the end of the session.

Under the new law, the Michigan courts will have jurisdiction over all cases involving the maintenance and support of a spouse, child or dependent person, whether the parties are married, divorced, separated, or never married.

Golden Anniversary

Judge and Mrs. J. M. Liden will be honored guests at a reception to be given Sunday afternoon, Feb. 23, at the Snover Creek Country Club in celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary. Hosts for the social affair will be their son, Mr. George Liden and Mrs. Liden. No invitations are being extended. All friends of the couple are invited to attend. Hours for the social event will be from 7 o'clock until 3 o'clock. Omission of gifts is requested. Judge and Mrs. Liden were married on Feb. 23, 1919 in the parlor of the First Methodist Church in Lexington with Rev. J. D. Field officiating. Mrs. Liden, a native of Cincinnati is the former George McDonald, daughter of the late Melvin Harman and John F. McDonald. Judge Liden's parents are the late Amelia Turner and James Monroe Liden. He was born in Bourbon County and it has been his life-time residence. He is serving his fifth term as Bourbon County Judge and was previously a deputy sheriff and sheriff before assuming the judgeship. The couple have two children, George Liden, Paris and James Monroe Liden Jr., Dallas Texas and six grandchildren.
