Deming Surprises Lewis Tournament Loses By 3, 82-79
In a holiday tournament anything can happen. So was the case Thursday when the Devils defeated Lewis County in the fourth game of the L.C.I.T. Even though Lewis County won the game 70-52 in the first quarter and set what had to be a record 7 times for 7 times down the floor. At the end of 1 period the Devils had a surprising 17-13 lead.

The first quarter showed McKell's new covered highway coaches. Following the game, the party was held at the Lewis County 4-H Club. The sturbon Devils just wouldn't stop as they gnawed away at the Lion head and cut it to 57-52 3/4 quarter of the way done.

From there they cut the lead to 3 points, four times but were unable to overcome Lewis County. Lewis advanced to the semi-finals Friday to meet the Creeping Tigris.

CHAMPION 4-H CLUB in the annual Kentucky Utilities Company 4-H Club Achievement Contest, the Liberty State of Western County, receives its award certificate from Fred Spragg, KU agricultural development representative. President Teresa Melton accepts the certificate. Other club officers are from right: Rodney Clayton, vice president; Mark Russell, treasurer; and Leticia Melton, secretary. The Liberty State were selected as most outstanding among the 4,000 clubs with 100,000 4-H'ers in the contest.
