Your Library

A shipment of new books has been received by the Nicholas County Library from the Department of Libraries, Frankfort.

Among them are: The Garden, by H. A. Hartwick, in this inspiring book, Mr. Hartwick observes his gardens at every season of the year. From his contemplation comes a serene philosophy of the unity and ultimate purpose of life to be achieved in the fullness of each new moment.

Night Before The Wedding, by the Gordons. In this tautly-written romantic suspense story about one terrorized human being, the authors study of what happens to an innocent person caught up in a crime.

Psychic Investigator, by Hans Holzer. The eerie world of ghostly phenomena is explored by the world's most famous ghost hunter.

Sunday The Rabbi Stayed Home, by Harry Kemelman. First-rate mystery with Rabbi David Small as the sleuth.

The Touch, by Daniel Keyes. This is the first time a novel has dealt with the effects of an industrial "spill" on those of us who work and live near places where radioactive materials are used.

The Winter People, by Phyllis Whitney. A modern gothic novel of suspense about the demon possession as it concerns two almost identical twins.

New books for children received are: Baseball, by Dick Siebert and Otto Vogel. A volume of interest to young people, Baseball includes a history of the sport, practical instruction and a section on Little League playing rules. Grade 6-up.

The Bird That Got Left Behind, by Amund Schroder. Wagner in Oslo, Norway finds Pep, the skittail bird, staying and becoming the pet of young Marst instead of Flying South. However, before the winter ends, he embarks upon an exciting journey which takes him away from Marst and Oslo. Grades 5-8.

Come Back, Wherever You Are, by Lenora Mattingly Weber. Beany Maloney is back as a young wife and mother who encounters many problems when she agrees to care for a small motherless boy. Grades 5-7.

Four Tough Cases of The F.B.I., by James T. Rogers. Presented in this volume are four cases which illustrate the adventure, drama and danger involved in F.B.I. work. Grades 4-8.

Joe And The Snow, by Tomie de Paola. Joe thought and thought and thought. "Snow. Snow. Snow," he thought. So it allowed, but with surprising results. Suitable for preschool-grade 2.

Manhattan Is Missing, by E. W. Hildick. Ransom for a cat? Certainly, especially if his name is Manhattan and he happens to be a valuable Siamese. A suspenseful story for children. Ages up to 12.

Pancho, The Story Of A Horse, by Dorian Ward. An exciting book for horse lovers. Pancho appears to be a horse without a past, but his new owner is determined to prove the animal's true worth. Grades 4-6.

Screwball, by Allen Armer. Mike's determination to build a racing car and win the Detroit Soap Box Derby helps him to overcome problems caused by a physical handicap. Grades 4-6.

A Single Light, by Maia Wojciechowska. A priceless statue and the actions of a deaf mute girl greatly affect life in Almas, a poor village in Spain. A Newberry Medal winner. Grades 6 up.

The Skating Rink, by Mildred Lee. A new skating rink in town provides the turning point in the life of Tuck, a teenager plagued by loneliness and a stutter. Grades 7 up.

Nicholas County History Synopsis

Nicholas County was formed Dec. 18, 1799, out of parts of Bourbon and Mason Counties. It was named for Colonel George Nicholas, 1743-99, a native of Virginia who came to Kentucky in 1790. He was a zealous advocate of Virginia adoption of the Federal Constitution in 1788.

Colonel Nicholas was one of the leaders in Kentucky's first constitutional convention and was the first Attorney General of the state. He was also the first law professor at Transylvania College; an extensive landholder as well as investor in cloth manufacture and iron furnaces.

The first county seat was located on the Maysville road six miles from Blue Licks, at Ellisville. About 1805 until 1816 when it was moved to its present location after John Kincart offered the town a tract of one and three fourths acres for a public square(the present site of the Court House) an additional fifty acres for building lots and his own residence for court sessions until the permanent Court House could be built.

The present Court House shown above was completed in 1903 and is of unusual constructure including a novel electric flag.

Carlisle was named for Carlisle, Pennsylvania, from which number of early settlers came.

In The Service

USS KITTY HAWK (FHTNC)--Navy Ensign Billy G. Hopkins, son of Charles Hopkins of Carlisle, Route 1, is serving aboard the aircraft carrier USS Kitty Hawk off the coast of Vietnam.

While off Vietnam, planes from the Kitty Hawk help provide air support to U. S. and Allied ground forces fighting the enemy. In addition the planes also destroy enemy targets in South Vietnam. Upon completion of flight operations the Kitty Hawk will return to Bremerton, Washington, where she will undergo a yard period.

The carrier became the first ship to receive the Presidential Unit Citation during the Vietnam war.

Independence Day

As we join together to celebrate this Fourth of July, let us remember that, above all, this is a day to show our gratitude to our forefathers for their great fortitude and vision in establishing this great nation upon the foundations of freedom, and their steadfastness in upholding that freedom.

Let us affirm our faith in the principles for which they stood and pledge anew, dedicating ourselves unswervingly to the ideal that liberty may ever endure.
