

17 Children Enrolled In Kindergarten

The Carlisle Kindergarten which is sponsored by the Fr. Thomas Church has its eighth year Oct. 6, 17 children enrolled. The fall term began Tuesday, Sept. 23. The children have been busily engaged in the usual activities of this new age.

They have been gathering the many signs of fall to hang on the "fall branch" in their classroom. The branch is being made of sticks, interspersed, larded with corn, colored leaves, acorns, wild grapes, and other things which are in season. Children are also learning to write, paint, and do folk dances. There has been a new and happy experience for many.

It is hoped that Kindergarten will create an environment which will stimulate learning, permit social interaction, contribute to a feeling of security, self-confidence and adequacy of each child.

This will be a year in which the five-year-old can deal with his expanding world on his own level and at his own pace.

Kindergarten provides experience and contributes to growth in the use of language, art, and activities expressed by emphasis on academic skills. The child may explore his surroundings, manipulate materials of various sorts, and discover ways of writing and playing which are new to him. This age much is learned through play. Play is a process through which real learning evolves. The child's deep interest in exploring and observing helps him to understand the needs of others. In play he develops ideas which he tests and evaluates.

J.P. Wells, Bourbon County and Mrs. Willie Fryman, Nicholas County are teachers. John Graves, Irving, 13-year-old children and 20 great-grandchildren. Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Monday at the M.E. Church in the funeral home in Millersburg by the Rev. Woodward Bentley of Frankfortville in the Elliptic cemetery.

Sometimes, It's good to make a change.

Now you only need one coin to win in Shell's States of the Union Game. Not a whole group of coins.

For instance, get Arkansas, and you've won $500—just like that. Or pick up any of the other coins we've circled—and you win from one to five thousand dollars.

The other rules stay the same. You get a coin—free—every time you visit a participating station. You don't have to buy anything. You must be a licensed driver. The game is void where prohibited.
