THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fisher.

CAPITALIST HOLIDAY

The first Presidential Proclamation of a day of Thanksgiving in the United States was made by George Washington, in 1789.

Abraham Lincoln was the first President to appoint an official Thanksgiving Day, to be celebrated each year on the last Thursday of November.

A fact too often forgotten concerning the Pilgrim Fathers is their trial—and abandonment—of the communal system of joint ownership and community labor in the colony.

The crops failed, and the "starving time" soon followed. Things became so bad in 1623, just three years after they had landed...

The Pilgrims had learned their lesson the hard way. But, from the agony of "the starving time" there has grown the most productive and most wealthy civilization that the world has ever known.

CONSUMER COMMENTS

My office's Consumer Protection Division has recently reached agreements with two firms concerning promotional sales programs...

Because of the emphasis placed upon the sale of distributorships as "end-year" sales, the industry can be expected to be very active in the next few years...

One of the problems of such a promotional plan is that the sale of distributorships can be emphasized at the expense of the sale of the product...
