NCHS Students Attend Lexington Conference
Young people from the Nicholas County High School, selected by the Rotary Club in cooperation with the school, attended the annual SPOKE Student Program on Kentucky Enterprise at Lexington on Saturday, Oct. 11. This conference, sponsored by the Lexington Rotary Club, is a conference on American business and the free use of leverage. Its purpose is to explain to the youngsters the importance of the money they receive. Students from all over the state gathered at Transylvania College to hear A. C. Brown and other prominent businessmen speak on the subject. The conference was presided by Mr. M. C. Robertson and Mrs. William Wilson. The young people were presented to make reports at school, and Bill Gausner and David Wilson will present a program at the Rotary Club meeting this evening.

MRS. CHARLES WAYNE FEEBACK
Miss Carolyn Barton Becomes Bride of Charles Wayne Feeback Sept. 27
Miss Carolyn Sue Harms, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Harms of Carlisle, became the bride of Charles Wayne Feeback, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard O. Feeback of Cincinnati at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 27 at the Carlisle Christian Church. The double ring candle lighting ceremony was performed by Rev. Harold Burns.
