

Linville-Thompon

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white organza over pale pink peau de soie, trimmed with ruffled lace and daisy medallions. Her floor length mantilla was edged with Alençon lace and appliques of lace rosettes. She carried a bridal bouquet of white orchids and pink hydrangeas.

Her only attendant, Miss Sally Thompson, sister of the groom, was attired in a floor length gown of pink dotted swiss. Her head-dress was a matching pink bow, and she carried a bouquet of pink daisies.

Owen Thompson, of Lexington, brother of the groom, served as best man. A reception was held immediately following the wedding. The bride's table was decorated with a two-tiered wedding cake, spring flowers and lighted candles.

The bride chose for her wedding trip a pink, flannel suit with brown accessories. She wore at her shoulder the orchid taken from her bridal bouquet.

After a wedding trip to South Carolina, the groom will return to Nashville to complete his sophomore year at Vanderbilt University. Mrs. Thompson plans to resume her job with the school here for the summer. Both are graduates of Bourbon County High School. She also graduated from Fugazzi Business College.

Snakenberg.
The couple will make their home in Kentucky.

Homemakers Meet

The Miranda Homemakers met March 11, at 11:30 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Licha Farah in Douglas Court, for a pot luck luncheon and meeting.

The meeting was called to order by the new president, Mrs. Jean Darrell.

The devotional was given by Mrs. Walter Kendall, using the theme, "Trust in God and Not in Men." The Landscap Chairman reported on the care of lawns.

The lesson on "Kitts in Our Wardrobe" was given by Mrs. James Love, who stated that prisms were in for sure. And also dresses would be 2 inches longer by fall.

After the meeting, two games were enjoyed. The meeting was adjourned to meet in April with Mrs. Malcolm Willis at 7 p.m.

4-H Meets
The Shooting Stars 4-H meeting was called to order by our great-grand Sammie Vice. Brenda Ecton led the pledge to the American Flag and Kathy Amberg led us in the 4-H pledge. Secretary Darrell Seaton called the roll and read the minutes which were approved.

New business was discussed; Jane Snapp wanted to join the 4-H club. The president asked for announcements and then Mrs. Margie Wilson talked about the talent show. There was no specific club program, so we planned for the talent show. The meeting was then adjourned.—Jackie Alexander, Reporter
