Kay's Kitchen ---By Kay Fisher

For Mrs. George Joyce of Newport News, Vir. here are two candy pudding recipes. Both good. The one you select will show how ambitious you are.

CANDY PUDDING

1 pound confectioners sugar
1 stick of butter (1/4 pound)
2 tablespoons cream or enough to handle easily
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup chopped nuts
1 box of red and one box of green candied cherries

Mix all ingredients and make into roll to slice. Store in refrigerator overnight before slicing.

Mrs. Curtis Jones

CANDY PUDDING

12 cups white sugar
2 cups cream
2 cans coconut
1 cup nuts
12 candied cherries
12 dates

If the above is wanted in two colors--split recipe in half, and cook separately.

To white sugar add enough hot water to cover stirring with wooden spoon or finger thoroughly to make thick syrup. (Keep spoons out of mixture during cooking except for testing). Cook until syrup spins a hair. Then add cream, a little at a time--cook until a small soft ball can be formed in water. (It's all in the cooking so I'm told). Pour onto buttered "marble" slab. Knead--if this batch is to be pink add coloring before it creams, then put in coconut and nuts. If at this point mixture should begin to crumble add 2 or more teaspoons of warm water and work thoroughly. Form in loaf, slice and add dates cut fine to the pink and finely chopped candided cherries to the white slices.

CHRISTMAS DESSERTS

All of these desserts are a collection of rich and tasty concoctions given to me by friends and relatives through the years. I have never seen any one of them in a cookbook, though they may be. Most of them are quick and easily prepared.

FRENCH SILK

Make a crust by combining the following ingredients and pat down both bottom and sides into a 9 inch fly 13 inch pan.

1/2 cup brown sugar (loosely packed)
1 cup flour
1/2 cup chopped pecans
1/4 pound butter

Bake at 400 degrees for 15 minutes. While still hot, stir up crust and pat down loosely and gently and chill.

Make a filling and pour over crust.

1/2 pound butter
1 1/2 cups white sugar
2 teaspoons vanilla
1/2 teaspoon peppermint extract
3 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted
4 eggs

Cream butter and sugar. Add vanilla and peppermint, melted chocolate and eggs, one at a time, beating five minutes after each addition. Fill crust and chill overnight. Top with prepared topping. Serves 12.

CHOCOLATE MOUSSE

Melt 1/4 pound semi-sweet chocolate with 2 tablespoons of water over hot water. When melted, cool and add 1 teaspoon of rum and the beaten yolks of three eggs. (Beat yolks until light in color.) Fold all into the stiffly beaten whites to which you have added 4 tablespoons of sugar. Spoon into parfait glasses or sherbert glasses and refrigerate overnight. Serve garnished with whipped cream and topped with maraschino cherry.

Here is a recipe to save and to serve when you want a dessert for a very special occasion. This dessert was one of the most popular numbers on the menu of the superliner, United States back in 1954. My mother and sister, who were aboard her that year, brought the recipe back to me. It was listed on the menu as Peppermint Mousse Unites States. Now I just call it:

PEPPERMINT MOUSSE

Whip 1 1/2 pints of heavy cream, fold in 1 cup crushed peppermint stick candy. Add very, very slowly 1 ounce of green creme de menthe and 1 ounce white cream de menthe. Lastly add slowly 3 tablespoons sugar. (The recipe did not say but I always have used confectioners sugar.) Chill very throughly and serve in small sherbert glasses. With this, don't forget to serve the after dinner black coffee.

CRUMBLE TART

1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
dash of salt

Mix together and add two well beaten eggs, 1 cup chopped pecans; 1 cup chopped dates; 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Bake 30 minutes at 350 degrees. Cool. Serve with whipped cream.

Mrs. Lewis Robbins

DATE PUDDING

1 box of pitted dates (soak in 1 cup hot water about 15 minutes)

Add 2 tablespoons butter, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 cup sugar, 1 1/2 cups flour mixed with 1 cup broken pecans.

Bake at 350 degrees for 45 minutes. Cut in rectangular pieces and serve with hot orange sauce, topped with whipped cream on each piece.

ORANGE SAUCE

Cream 1/2 cup butter and 1/2 cup confectioners sugar; juice of 1 orange and 1 teaspoon grated orange rind. Cook in double boiler and serve on pudding HOT. Don't forget to add the whipped cream on top. (Double this recipe for a more bountiful serving. Serves about 12.

WHITE CHOCOLATE CAKE

I'm giving you this recipe because so many have asked for it and it is so good. After all, we all will want a change from fruit cake once in awhile during the holidays.

I don't know the origin of this recipe, but mine came from Mrs. Donald Story who somehow manages to have in her collection the goodies making the rounds.

1/4 pound white chocolate melted over hot water
1 cup butter
2 cups white sugar
4 eggs separated
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 1/2 cups cake flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 cup buttermilk
1 cup chopped pecans
1 cup Angel flake coconut

Cream butter and sugar. Beat in egg yolks. Add vanilla and melted chocolate. Add flour and baking powder alternately with buttermilk. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Stir in nuts and coconut.

Bake at 350 degrees in 2 nine inch buttered and floured pans about 45 minutes. Or in large tube pan about 75 minutes.

WHITE CHOCOLATE CAKE ICING

2 cups white sugar
2 sticks butter
1 small can evaporated milk
1 teaspoon vanilla

Mix all ingredients and let stand for 1 hour. Stir occasionally, then cook until soft ball is formed in cool water. Beat until ready to spread on cake.

After a tour around town the Lamplighters will have a social for the residents at the Johnson-Mathers Nursing Home. Carols will be sung and refreshments will be served.
