By Virginia Smith Donovan

I bring you good news of a great joy, which will come to all the people, for you in town this day in the City of David a Saviour who has come and he is born this day in the manger. Robert Claver says he believes in Santa and we shouldn't let him, for he will be sure to catch up with us.

John Smithson said he was glad to be wheeled out to a day room to see Fat Fisher's dog.

Uncle Tom said Santa was a humbug. Children don't make all of Christmas, but the holiday would be rather dull without them especially if one had been used to a "fang" of the. A lady brought her grandchildren lived too far away to come and help her. She had to decorate the tree, asked her neighbors, Uncle Tom Jackson's grandsons, and her own children. The Conley children, Kay, Mike and Mary, and the Conley boys brought their dog, "Lassie" who was accompanied by a dog, who was children's dog. The dogs were satiated to stay on the front porch, coming in after school, all were hungry. The lady's kitchen table was packed with Christmas plates, cups, napkins, place cards and all. The center of the table contained a tiny manger scene which softly played "Silent Night". The refreshments were piled upon a little pitcher which had to be filled more than once, and cookies. After refreshments all of them went to the attic and brought down the artificial tree and ornaments. This really was fun. The tree needed an angel, the top, Mike, Lassie and Scott went and got one which had been made in "Miss Dorcy and "Miss" Martha's kindergarten class a few years before. This was a real love gift, for each thought and made it a party like it is very rewarding and certainly doesn't cost much. It's good poetry, and cheaper than nerve medicine. Try this something. You won't have to be forger.

Wille Sargent says he sees no need in complaining, for it doesn't help any. He said he had done some farming, worked for a race horse man in Bourbon County, and worked for the City in Paris. He said he had been wined three at any of these places.

J.P. Garble had company from Mason and Fleming Counties. They were his boys and their families. Don't destroy all your old Christmas cards. The flashy one cut out are nice to decorate packages with.

Harvey Ellison says he's almost sure Santa is bringing him something.

A little boy approached Santa Claus in a department store with a long list of requests. He wanted a bicycle, a wagon, a chemical set, a cowboy suit, a set of trains, a football, and roller skates.

"That's a pretty long list," said Santa sternly. "I'll have to check in my book and see if I have them."

"No, no," the youngster said quickly. "Never mind checking. I'll take the roller skates."

Do you remember when we had Christmas just for three days, Christmas Eve and Christmas Day? Sometimes we went to school on Christmas Eve. We looked forward to getting oranges from the teacher, and one or two which Santa put in our stockings. We couldn't keep from feeling sad just after the good old year before the good old St. Nick would come again.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL!

SANTA LETTERS

Dear Santa Claus, My name is Susan Ritchie. I am 8 years old. I am in the Third-Grade. I have been a good girl, I think. For Christmas I would like to have a Barbie baby-doll, a Easy Curl Set, a Barbey Picture Maker and other things. And don't forget the boys and girls.

I have a little sister who is 4 years old. Her name is Kathy. She is little to write so I am writing her. For Christmas she would like to have a Baby Tender Love, a Strawberry, a Baby Bed and other surprises.

We will leave you some milk and cookies.

Your friends, Susan, Kathy P.S. Don't forget Mommy, Daddy

Dear Santa, We'll, it's that time again. Thought I'd better let you know I love you and tell you what I'd like to have for Christmas. I'd like an electric football game, a talking Cj. Joe with uniforms and a holster with pistols.

Hope you and Mrs. Claus have a nice Christmas and I'll leave you a stack under the tree. Don't forget any little boys and girls. Bye now.

Darrin Green

Dear Santa, I am trying very hard to be good for you, but sometimes this is hard to do as there are four of us.

We saw you at the new Food-town Store so you already know what we want.

Please don't forget the little orphans of the world. They have no parents to love them and that's the most wonderful gift of all. We will leave a snack under the tree.

Lots of Love, Lisa, David, Barbie and Kenny Payne
