PARTY SNACKS

Here are some last minute Christmas party snacks.

OLIVE CHEESE TIDBITS

1 stick of butter
1 - 5 ounce glass of English Cheddar cheese
1 1/4 cups flour
dash of salt
medium size stuffed olives, drained well

Mix butter, flour, cheese and salt together with fingers until like a dough. Pinch off small ball and wrap around olive. Seal well. Place on cookie sheet and chill overnight. Bake at 400 degrees about 15 minutes until lightly brown.

QUICHE LORRAINE
(Pronounced Keesh)

This is wonderful for a main luncheon dish or use it for a cocktail party, cut in tiny wedges.

1 - 9 inch unbaked pie shell
4 strips bacon
1 medium onion, minced
1 tablespoon butter
1 cup grated cheese (Swiss or Gruyere)
4 eggs, lightly beaten
1 cup milk and 1 cup cream (You can use 1 pint carton of Half and Half)
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper

Cook bacon until crisp. Remove from pan, add onion, cook 5 minutes, add butter and remove onion. Crumble crisp bacon on bottom of pie shell; sprinkle onion and about 1/4 of grated cheese in pie shell. (Here you might like to sprinkle lightly with Parmesan cheese.)

Combine rest of cheese, eggs, cream, seasonings and mix well. Pour into pie shell, flake at 425 degrees about 15 minutes. Reduce heat to 325 to 350 degrees and cook 15 more minutes or until custard is set and knife inserted comes out clean.--Margaret Taylor Gallaway, Richmond Vir.

CHEESE WAFERS

Get two 3 ounce packages of very snappy cheese that will cream easily. With a fork blend cheese with 1/4 pound of butter or margarine until smooth. Add 1 cup and 2 tablespoons of flour and 1/2 cup finely chopped pecans and work until thoroughly blended. I start with a fork and finish with my hands. When the blending is done, the mixture will be soft, so put it in the refrigerator until firm enough to handle.

Make balls of the mixture about the size of hickory nuts, and flatten on cookie sheet with fingers. Make them as evenly round as possible and quite thin. Sprinkle tops with paprika and bake in a 350 degree oven about 18 minutes, or until thoroughly dried.

You may make ahead then reheat in low oven before serving.

CHILI CHEESE BALL

1 cup cottage cheese
1 - 3 ounce package cream cheese
2 medium garlic cloves, crushed
2 teaspoons chili powder
2 teaspoons Worchestershire sauce
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon Tobasco Sauce
2 cups (8 ounce shredded cheese, room temperature)
1 cup chopped pecans (not too fine)

In mixing bowl beat together cottage cheese, cream cheese, garlic, chili powder, Worchestershire and Tobasco sauces and salt at high speed until fairly smooth. Gradually beat in cheddar cheese until smooth. Makes 3 cups. Wrap in wax paper and chill for 1 hour for ease in handling. Shape into balls or rolls and roll in pecans to cover. Serve with crackers or arty rye bread rounds.--Mrs. Malcolm Berry Carlisle

CLAM CHEESE DIP

1 - 8 or 10 ounce can of chopped clams
2 dashes or more Tobasco Sauce
3 - 8 ounce package cream cheese (room temperature)
1 minced clove garlic
3 tablespoons minced onion
1 tablespoon lemon juice

Mash cheese. Drain clams (save juice.) Add clams, Tobasco, garlic, onion and lemon juice to cheese; add enough clam juice for dipping consistency. Serve with chips or crackers. Yields about 2 1/2 cups.

CRABMEAT SPREAD

2 - 7 ounce cans drained crabmeat (check for cartilage)
1/2 cup mayonnaise
2 teaspoons horseradish
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 tablespoons minced green onions
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
paprika

Combine all ingredients except paprika, cover, chill. Sprinkle with paprika before serving with crackers. Yields 2 cups

VEGETABLE DIP

Warm 1/2 cup sherry and pour over 1 package of onion soup mix. Let stand for at least 1 hour. Then stir well with fork; fold in 1 cup sour cream and 1/4 teaspoon paprika. Cover and refrigerate until serving time. A delicious dip for celery sticks, carrot sticks, cauliflower or potato chips.

SHRIMP SPREAD

1/4 cup butter or margarine
1 cup chopped shrimp
grated onion as desired
1/2 teaspoon finely chopped parsley
2 teaspoons lemon juice
dash of salt.

Combine all ingredients. Serve in glass bowl, sprinkled with paprika. Serve on assorted crackers or Melba toast.

Homemakers Meet Dec. 11

The Carlisle West Homemakers met Friday, Dec. 11, at the United Methodist Church Annex, for a pot luck dinner. The table was decorated in keeping with the advent season.

After lunch, Mrs. Lida Mae Wade, president, welcomed the visitors, Mrs. W.R. Booth, Miss Mary Frances Fisher and Mrs. Omer Berry, who belongs to the club, but is now making her home at Johnson-Mathers Nursing Home and had not been attending the meetings.

The roll call was answered by each member telling what she is doing to promote peace.

We had voted to give a dollar instead of having an auction this Christmas and this was collected.

We also voted to send a sunshine box to Mrs. Vivian Scott.

We filled in our calendars for the coming year.

After this we enjoyed our Christmas program which was a candle lighting service. Mrs. S.M. DeMyer and Mrs. Bonnie Cummins had charge of the music. Fifteen were present.

Our next program will be at a restaurant with Miss Mary Lois Campbell as hostess.
