

Jackets Lose Twice

By Robby Kingsolver
The Nicholas County Bluejackets just didn't seem to be able to get going in their battle with the Polar Bears Tuesday night, the 15th, at Bracken County. The Bears broke ahead early in the game and Nicholas was unable to catch up. The final score was 84-50 in Bracken's favor.
The Jackets did better in the Saturday night game with Richmond Model. The Rebels won by two points on a basket made in the last two seconds of the game.
Although the Jackets got an early lead in the first quarter, they seemed a little cold and the Rebels up. Jimmy Parker stole the ball and led the rush down court where he put in a lay up shot for two points. Parker did the same thing again in Richmond's next possession and the Jackets pushed ahead. Nicholas led 43-31 at the end of the third.

BAKING BREAD IS AN ART... and fun for Martha Cohorn, local 4-H'er and last year's 4-H State Bread Project Champion. Martha is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cohorn.

Foul trouble was the downfall of the Jackets. Both Rodney Hamon and Rex Boyd fouled out, and the team couldn't hold up without Rodney, Rex, and Ernie. The Rebels slowly gained on the Jackets. Nicholas was ahead by only one point with 1:21 to go. The Jackets' Coach Anderson called time out when the Rebels were at the foul line with the score tied 55-55 and with 10 seconds to go. The shot missed, but a jump ball was called to the following scramble. The Rebels got the tip and put the ball in with only two seconds left. Final score 57-55.

Clausus Ritchie made the closing remarks.
We forgot to mention that eight from the different churches sang a special song.
Rev. Gaunce offered the closing prayer. After the service, each resident was given a little plastic shepherd and dog statuette, which glows in the dark.
The golden age was never the present age... Benjamin Franklin. It's nice to have "Doc" Abnee back from the hospital.
Mrs. Claudia Wells was ready to show the picture of her new grandson.
Phillip Otto and Gary Livingston were down to see Landen Stewart Friday.
Mrs. Carrie Mitchell had out of town guests on Christmas Day. Her daughter, Mrs. Eunice Harper of South Shore; daughter, Mrs. Edna Lang of Raceland and son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Mitchell of Raceland.
Mrs. Robert Boyd's room was overflowing with beautiful poinsettias. These were from her family and friends.
The Christmas Day favors were made by the Nicholas County Home Economic classes and one 4-H club. We didn't find out which one but anyway they were attractive.
Mrs. O.S. Keady's room had lots of pretty things in it. There was a pretty light green knitted throw with fringe. Her daughter, Frances Royce brought it. Frances, did you make it?
Mrs. Omer Berry went to visit her brother, Dan Wells and his family on Christmas Day.
Mrs. Hollis Danelle and her daughter, Mrs. Henry Allen were disappointed with the Christmas issue of the Mercury. It didn't contain the picture of the little "sooty" Santa coming down the chimney. Mrs. Danelle said she knew she had been seeing that little Santa for more than 60 years.
J.B. Barbee's great-granddaughter, Lynn Carson and her family came from Chillicothe, Ohio to visit him and brought their dog, "Gidget" along. "Gidget" was a present Mr. Barbee had purchased for their Christmas. One could see Gidget was welcomed to his new home.
We were afraid the dining room tables would break down, there was so much good food on them. This was a turkey dinner and all the trimmings. The following people were guests: Mrs. Leonard Fite, guest of Leonard; J.W. Soper and sons; John and Tom, guests of Nurse Lydia Soper; Mrs. Henry Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kerne, guests of Mrs. Hollis Danelle; Mr. and Mrs. Hinton Caswell, guests of Miss Effie Anderson; Mr. and Mrs. John Glass and Darrell, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley
