Obituaries

MRS. FIRMAN WASSON

Mrs. Winnie Wasson, widow of Firman Wasson, died Friday, Jan. 30, 1970, at her home after a brief illness. She was a native of Nicholas County and a member of the Carlisle Christian Church.

She is survived by one niece, Mrs. Kitty Sloan, Lexington, two nephews, James Richard Hamm, Cincinnati, and Reese Hamm, Lexington.

Funeral services were conducted at 10:30 a.m., Monday from the Mathers-Shearer Chapel by Rev. Hrold Rice, Pallbearers: Reese and Richard Hamm, clyde Sloan, Hord Crouch, Billy Gaunce and Matthew Campbell. Burial in Carlisle Cemetery.

MISS PATRICIA HUGHES

Miss Patricia Hughes, of Washington, Ky, in Mason County, critically injured in an auto accident early Sunday, Jan. 25, died Jan. 27, 1970, in the intensive care ward at Good Samaritan Hospital, Lexington.

The 23-year-old school teacher, engaged to be married to Patrick Gantley on March 14, died less than 48 hours after her brain was irreparably damaged when her head struck the windshield of her fiance's car. She never regained consciousness.

Four men--all being held in jail--attempted to pass the Gantley 1968 Chevrolet and hit it in the left rear. The impact caused Mr. Gantley to lose control and it eventually sideswiped a utility pole before smashing into a large road roller.

Deputy Sheriff Charles Brodt, who investigated the accident, said additional work would be done on the case.

Miss Hughes, born in Mason County, was the only child of Clyde L. and Alice Dwelly Hughes.

She was educated in the Washington grade school and she graduated from Mason County High School in 1965. She attended college at Eastern Kentucky University and received an AB degree in Biology in 1969. This year she had started her career in teaching as a chemistry teacher at Dayton, Ky., High School.

Miss Hughes also was a member of the Central United Methodist Church.

In addition to her parents, she is survived by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hughes, of Blue Licks, and Mrs. Jeff Dwelly, of Mt. Olivet. She was a niece of Mrs. Carl Hughes and Mrs. Joe Delaney of Nicholas County.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m., Thursday, Jan. 29, at the Porter Memorial Home. The Rev. Harry Wulfcamp, pastor of the Central United Methodist Church, Maysville, officiated and burial was in the Washington Cemetery.

ELGAN F. CLARK

Elgan F. Clark, 73, died Friday, Jan. 30, 1970, at the Nicholas County Hospital. He was a native of Nicholas County and a member of the Christian Church.

He is survived by one brother, Clay Clark, Nicholas County, three nephews and one cousin.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m., Sunday from the Mathers-Shearer Chapel by Rev. Harold Rice. Burial in the Carlisle Cemetery. Pallbearers: Lovell and Henry Livingood, Avery Mitchell, Everett Johnson, Glenn Hardin, and Hanson Ellington.

KENNETH WHITE

Kenneth White, 31, Louisville, died Saturday, Jan. 31, 1970. He was a native of Nicholas County and a member of the CME Methodist Church. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Dorothy G. White, Louisville, one son, Kenneth Eugene White, Jr., parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alando White, Carlisle, two sisters, Misses Frances and Carolyn White, Louisville and one brother, Alando White Jr., Chicago, Ill.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Monday at the CME Methodist Church by Rev. Melvin Hunt, Pallbearers: Michael O'Bannon, Ab Jr. and Donald Sharp, Benjamin, Louis and Arcelous Williams.

Burial in Henryville Cemetery.

E. DUDLEY BELL

E. Dudley Bell, 87, of the VanMeter Road in Clark County, died at 9:20 Monday, Feb. 2, 1970, at the Bourbon County Hospital after an illness of several months.

He was a native of Nicholas County and a son of the late David and Elizabeth Hollar Bell.

Mr. Bell was a retired farmer.

Survivors are several nieces and nephews including W.O. Florence Jr., Taybraville; Harold Bell, Veneanola; Cecil Bell, Scott County; John H. Bell, Fayette County; Reynolds and Joe Bell, Bourbon County; Mrs. John Carroll, Berea; Mrs. Catherine Brown, Cynthiana; Mrs. Carrie Colvin, Davenport, Ill., and Mrs. Chris Scott, Melroy, Ind.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Hinton-Turner Funeral Home at 10 a.m., Thursday by the Rev. Bert Smith. Burial will be in the Paris Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 4 p.m. Wednesday.

Farm Machinery Show Begins In Louisville

It's the latest in farm products, machinery and techniques on display for you at the 1970 NATIONAL FARM MACHINERY SHOW, Feb. 11-14, at the Kentucky Fair and Exposition Center, Louisville.

Everything from plowing and planting units to silos and feeders, forage equipment to milking machines, hybrid seed and farm chemicals, the show will return this year bigger and better than ever before. More than 225 major and short-line manufacturers will be on hand with products that will reach into every corner of your farm. This spectacular display will cover six and a half comfortable indoor acres.

The Kentucky Fair and Exposition Center is located a day's drive from most lower-Midwest areas. It's on the east-west and north-south expressways seven minutes from downtown Louisville, and two minutes from Standiford Airport. Motel and restaurants are nearby. Parking space for 27,000 cars is available, and a warm one-floor exposition inside.

Last year's show had an attendance of 152,368, of which 91% were farmers or people indirectly related to farms, and many interested people from the highway department, contractors, golf courses, etc. Viewers came from 23 states and five foreign countries to look, compare and buy.

Again this year there will be Tractor Pulling Championship. It will be held Wednesday and Thursday nights, Feb. 11 and 12, in Freedom Hall. The latest and most modern hydraulic equipment will be used for the slide. There will be four classes: 5,000#--9,000#--12,000#--and 15,000# with 25 tractors limited to each class.

Top prize money will be $800.00 and a trophy--2nd $500.00 and a trophy--3rd $300.00 and a trophy--4th $200.00 and a plaque--5th $100.00 and a plaque for the first three classes. The Grand Prize on the 15,000# class will be $1,000.00 and a trophy--2nd $600.00 and a trophy--3rd $400.00 and a trophy --4th $200.00 and a plaque--5th $100.00 and a plaque. There will be two classes each night. Again this year, there will be a Door Prize each day with the Grand Prize of a Color Television.

4-H Meets

By Jackie Alexander

On Jan. 21, Mrs. Clark's 5th grade 4-H club meeting was called to order by the president, Sammy Vice. Kathy Amburgy led us in the pledge to the American and the 4-H flags. The song leader led us in singing "America", and the roll call was read by naming our favorite hobby. Then the secretary read the minutes of the last meeting. Mrs. Clark gave suggestions on how to answer the roll for the next club meeting. Naming your favorite bird was selected.

Our program was on "4-H Public Speaking." Mrs. Clark made an announcement about the 4-H catalog, from which we can buy 4-H supplies. The president turned the program over to the game leader, R.T. Massie, and we played the Eraser game.

The meeting was adjourned.

Centre Class Agent Selected For Drive

Mrs. Oliver H. Lambert of Carlisle has accepted appointment as Class Agent for the 1970 Annual Alumni Fund campaign of Centre College in Danville.

Centre fund class agents will each direct the drive within their respective classes as part of the general campaign which has a goal of $150,000 by June 30.

The 1969 campaign closed last June with a record total of $150,302. The annual campaign is conducted by the Centre Alumni Association in order to raise unrestricted funds for the college.

Centre's annual alumni fund has raised a grand total of $1,076,418 in its 28 consecutive years of operation since 1941. Last year's total of $150,302 was the largest in the history of the fund.

The impressive growth of Centre's annual fund since 1962 has brought national recognition to the Danville college. Last year, for the third time in six years, Centre won first place and $1,000 cash award from the American Alumni Council for sustained performance in alumni support among the nation's small, private, coeducational colleges.

Student Aid

Many young people, formerly unable to attend college because of financial limitations are having the door to higher education opened to them. Information on obtaining student financial aid will be presented on the Extension "Homemakers Today" television program on Saturday, Feb. 7, at 1:30 p.m.

Sara Swagerty, local 4-H Extension Agent and Jo Nelda Cole, Extension Agent in Madison County will be hosts for the Feb. 7 program, televised over WLEX TV, Channel 18, Lexington. Dr. Jim Executive Director of Educational program; Inc. will be the featured guest. He will discuss the varied types of student financial aid and where these can be obtained. Mr. Guinon will explain the STEP program which stands for "Success Through Educational Program." This program is designed to create work-study, summer jobs for college students by taking advantages of funds available from "Work-Study" provisions of the High Education Acts.

Missionary To Speak At Sunday Services

Missionary to India since 1946, Ralph Harter will speak Sunday morning, Feb. 8, at the East Union Christian Church and the same evening at the Mt. Zion Christian Church.

Kasgur is a large but little known city on the Ganges River, Mr. Harter serves there as a church pastor and as superintendent of Ekklesia Press. The latter incorporates a printing press, book store and library. His home is also a haven for teen-aged boys (some of them orphans) who come to the city to learn a trade or seek employment.

Mr. Harter came to the U.S. in Nov., and is planning to return to India in Aug.

Colored slides will be shown at both churches.

Mr. Harter ministered to the East Union Church in 1944-45.
