

Wilson-Simons Vows Spoken

Attached to a headpiece of lace embroidered with pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white sweetheart roses interspersed with pink ranunculus. Miss Monica Daugherty of Falmouth, close friend of the bride, was maid-of-honor. Mrs. Paul Wilson Jr., sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Kenneth Williams, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. They wore matching floor length gowns of pinstriped and rose dawn brocade and crepe. The long sleeve bodices were of pinstriped crepe and the full sweeping skirts were of rose dawn printed brocade. They wore matching pinstriped dresses in their hair. Each carried bouquets of white and pink ranunculus.

she wore a white pom-pom corsage. Harold Thomas of Aberdeen, Ohio, close friend of the groom, served as best man. Paul Wilson Jr., brother of the bride, and Mr. Kenneth Williams, brother-in-law of the groom, were attendants and acted as ushers at the church. Servers for the wedding were Alan and Scott Kline.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wilson chose a light green crepe ensemble with lace trim. Her accessories were matching in color and she wore a corsage of white roses. Mrs. Simons, mother of the groom, wore a light blue dress of crepe and her corsage was white roses.

Following the ceremony, the wedding party greeted guests and received best wishes from a receiving line in the vestibule of the church.

The wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The table was beautiful with a lace cloth over pink. The four-tiered wedding cake centered the table and a chain of white pom-poms with green foliage lay at the base of the cake where silver cups were placed for the bride and groom. Aunts of the bride serving at the table were Mrs. William Fogel of Butler, Mrs. Ervin Pate of Cold Springs, and Mrs. France Wilson of Grass Lick.

For her wedding trip, the bride wore a winter white wool dress with pink coat and carried her wedding bouquets. Following their wedding trip, the couple will reside in Lexington where the bride is a senior at the University of Kentucky and is majoring in Elementary Education. She plans to continue her studies. The groom is a graduate of Morehead State University and is doing graduate work at Eastern State University. He is employed as a teacher in the Fayette County School System.
