

Nursing Home News

By Virginia S. Donoran

It has been said that life is a mystery. Death must be too. Mrs. Ida Smith had been unable to talk for days but lately has been able to say a few words. Mrs. Harriette Branson, 78, from Robertson County, on her way home from Lexington, stopped by to see Mrs. Smith. It was Mrs. Truax's grandchild, John Wesley Branson, who heard Mrs. Smith, took her when she was an eight-year-old orphan and kept her until she made her way to Nicholas County and soon afterwards married Roy H. Smith, who passed away Oct. 10, 1952. Mrs. Smith always called "Uncle John" and his wife "Aunt Lottie" (no kin). Anyway, on the day of Mrs. Truax's visit, Mrs. Smith was able to call the names of "Uncle John" and "Aunt Lottie" and the name of the little place where they lived, "Hatsok."
