Nursing Home News

Harper of Raceland visited their mother, Mrs. Carrie Mitchell.
Here we go with Uncle Tom Jackson again. He says we've let our young people go too long before we have set an example before them. He says he feels sorry for the ones coming on. He also says "they" are talking about running a woman for President and he thinks that would be the wrong thing for we won't have to read very far in the Bible until we will read that men have always had the lead.

Mrs. Ann Hughes, who has been a resident of the home for more than five years, was transferred to the Charles County Home in Louisville. She was accompanied to the home by her nephew, George Carter, daughter-in-law, Frances Hughes, and granddaughter, Dorothy Marshall.

I complained because I had no shoes, until I met a man who had no shoes—Old Chinese Proverb. If you want to make somebody believe something, whisper it.
One of the hardest things in the world is to convince a woman that even a bargain costs money.

Mrs. Mattie Ashby was recently visited by her granddaughter, Ann Ashby Griffith and great-granddaughters, Cary, Emily, Mary Jane and Elizabeth Ann of Ft. Leavenworth, Kan. Ann and family are being transferred to Ft. Hill, Okla. for two years.
Doe Briggs had a little basket of artificial violets in his room. He said an old friend, Mrs. Sally Fisher, brought them. He said "Miss Sally" took care of his wife when she was sick.
Really, we always like to give credit where credit is due. The Father Day favors were as we stated previously announced at the Elizabethtown Home. We heard by way of the grapevine that Mrs. Bill Graham, who has moved from Lexington to Lake Carmichael, is a new member of the Club and is very interested and talented.
The future need not distress us. It is in the hands of Christ.
Father Swartz is visiting her father, Floyd Peabody of Aberdeen, Ohio. Her mother is now in a Painesville, Ohio hospital.
It is said that every dog has his day. Some people must have had theirs when they were pups.

Maybe you have been wondering why Dorothy Blake is all smiles. She has a new granddaughter. Her name is Donna Jewell Blake. She was born June 27. This is Dorothy's second grandchild, both girls.

Mrs. Anshell Shurt of Boone County visited her sister, Mrs. Lydia Barton on Tuesday.
Rick Klemm is a new orderly. He is working part time while he attends Community College in Mayville. It seems as if he is trying to claim kin with Dorothy Watkins and Mrs. Ida Harvey for he can be seen admiring Dotie who is Dorothy's granddaughter "Miss" Ida Harvey's granddaughter. He's a good workman.
Good things in life you can't buy.—Landon Stewart

Mrs. Helen Barrett Snapp and two children of New Whitington, Ind. were recently visited by her son, Billy Mac Gauson, 216 High Street, Carlisle, Ky. Phone 289-2241.
The two children stayed over for a longer visit with their grandparents.

Mrs. W. Anderson and family recently visited their sister-in-law, Miss Ethel Anderson. They live in Huntington, W. Va.
Lizzie Ratliff, who has been home sick, is back at work.
We recently noticed that Mrs. Gertrude Woodall was the owner of a new radio and stand. She said her children gave it to her for Mother's Day. Sorry we didn't notice it sooner.

It's nice to have Mrs. Maggie Hammonds back from the hospital. At last she is home and in the only home resident in the hospital.
If you think your old dog needs the value of money, try giving him a dime for an allowance. The bonds of matrimony aren't worth much from the hospital. At last she is home and in the only home resident in the hospital.
One reason that the school of experience is so tough is that you get the best first and the lesson afterward.
Rev. Neil Thompson, pastor of the First Christian Church had charge of the worship service Monday afternoon. Some hymns were sung. The scripture was from Psalm, the theme of Rev. Thompson's talk was Strength and Faith. A beautiful poem was read.
