Agree or Not

ordinance gathers within the sweep of its perimeter everybody who earns any money in any occupation, trade, or profession, or in the conduct of any business within the limits of the city and taxes them for the privilege according to the amount of their earnings or profits...."

The Court has been criticized in the past for its liberal interpretations. One of these was the "rubber dollar" opinion handed down on state salaries. The Court held that the intent of the Constitution framers was that the pay was based on the purchasing power of the dollar at that time.

The Court has reversed itself through the years and could conceivably do so in the case of the occupation tax. Some of the judges have said in private conversation that the occupation tax has been a life saver for the cities.

Judges not paying the tax now are Earl T. Osborne, Benton; Scott Reed, Lexington; Sam S. Steinfeld, Louisville; Homer Nelkirk, Somerset; James B. Milliken, Cold Springs; and Edward P. Hill, Prestonsburg. Commissioners not paying the tax are Beverly Waddell, Madisonville; Watson Clay, Frankfort; and Berna B. Davis, Shelbyville.

Judge John S. Palmore, Henderson; Commissioner Robert Cullen, Frankfort; and Administrative Director Astor Hogg, Frankfort, all pay the tax.

Hospital Board Clarifies ADMISSIONS POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Ever increasing Medical Care Costs were topics at the recent Nicholas County Hospital Board of Trustees Meeting. In order to maintain as near as possible the current charges the following rules and regulations were enumerated. Deposits will be required on all admissions, except those who have adequate and reputable insurance.

Regular $100.00 Obstetrical $125.00 Surgical $150.00

No admissions will be made without these advance arrangements. Prior arrangements with the Welfare Office were suggested for unemployed or disabled or current State Aid Card will suffice for admission. The Board further reviewed the past due accounts and suggested they be turned over to Collection Agencies and attorneys for collection as the surrounding hospitals do. Any questions on admissions or accounts should be cleared through the Business Office of the Hospital.
