Jenny Wiley Summer Theatre To Open Season On June 25

The Jenny Wiley Summer Music Theatre will open its 1970 season at the Jenny Wiley State Park Amphitheatre on June 25 with "Hello Dolly". The Long-running Broadway hit will star Margaret Sillars as Dolly, that wonderful matchmaker and lady-of-all-trades. The score includes "Put On Your Sunday Clothes" and the title song. The cast includes James T. Hardwick, and marks the first time a Kentucky summer stock company has presented a musical while it is still running on Broadway. Pearl Bailey, one of Broadway's fabulous Dollys writes the theatre. "Do the show with love as we have and have a ball!" "Hello Dolly" runs Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays June 25-July 11. "Little Mary Sunshine" is an exciting musical of fun and adventure plays the theatre Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, July 10 thru Aug. 1. Connie O'Connell plays Little Mary as she falls in love with a handsome ranger, is saved from a savage Indian, and carols her way through a 24-song score including "Look For A Sky of Blue" and the Colorado Love Call. "A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum" follows Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August 6-22 starring film actress, Betty Garrett and Pw. James T. Hardwick, as assigned to the 4th Cavalry, 1st Infantry Brigade, here in the United States Army Training Center Armor (USATCA). Both will spend the next two months learning the fundamental skills of the soldier in today's modern action Army--firing live ammunition under simulated combat situations, learning protective measures and first-aid for chemical, biological and radiological attacks, as well as being schooled in the use of modern arms. Interprated with the constant emphasis on proper physical condition, rest and health habits, will be ample opportunity to utilize U.S. Army and U.S. Marine Corps recreational and religious facilities.
