Ex-FBI agent Gordon Gordon has drawn up his extensive experience in our nation's investigation agency to provide documentary background on a whole series of very sensitive cases to get the key back in. It is his hope that by starting the professional training and experience offer some help to the police to keep a cool head, stall for time, and not let the criminal get away. He offers the great outdoors on his summer days to the crooks and scoundrels.

"When women are often to blame for criminal attacks and robbery of their persons," said Gordon. "Many girls assume it will never happen to them, so they don't stop to think about it. They are often the key to the investigation, walk dark streets alone at night, and go marking in blind alleys."

Wild Flower Artist Speaks To Garden Club Members

The Carlisle Garden Club met Monday, June 15 at the Methodist Church for the regular monthly meeting with 17 members and eight guests present.

Miss Estill Nofftanger gave the devotional, using as her text, "The Goodness of God."

William Layton, president, presided over a brief business session. The club decided to have a picnic at the Nicholas County Park in August.

William Layton introduced Mrs. Nettie Meadows, Wild Flower Artist, from Clay City, as a guest speaker.

Mrs. Meadows, in a most delightful manner, told about her work, displaying many of her prints. Her love for wild flowers that grow all around her home in Powell County, has led her to paint these delicate flowers and she is gaining recognition now as a very talented artist and author.

Accompanying each print is a descriptive caption of the talented author, naturalist and Kentucky historian, Neville Shackelford.

Mrs. Meadows also who had read a paper on the mountains area around Clay City and the almost inaccessible areas around Pine Knob.

A drawing she presented four pairs of her prints to members. The winners were Mrs. Taylor Swelling, Mrs. Frank Henry, Mrs. Warner Low, and Mrs. Charles Moore.

Mrs. George Dale, business manager, presented a box of cookies, nuts and mints from a lovely tea table. The table was covered with a net cloth over pink and covered with an arrangement of pine straw and flowers in a silver container.

Visitors to a present were Mrs. Meadows and Mrs. Ida Gilbert.
